The Midnight Hour

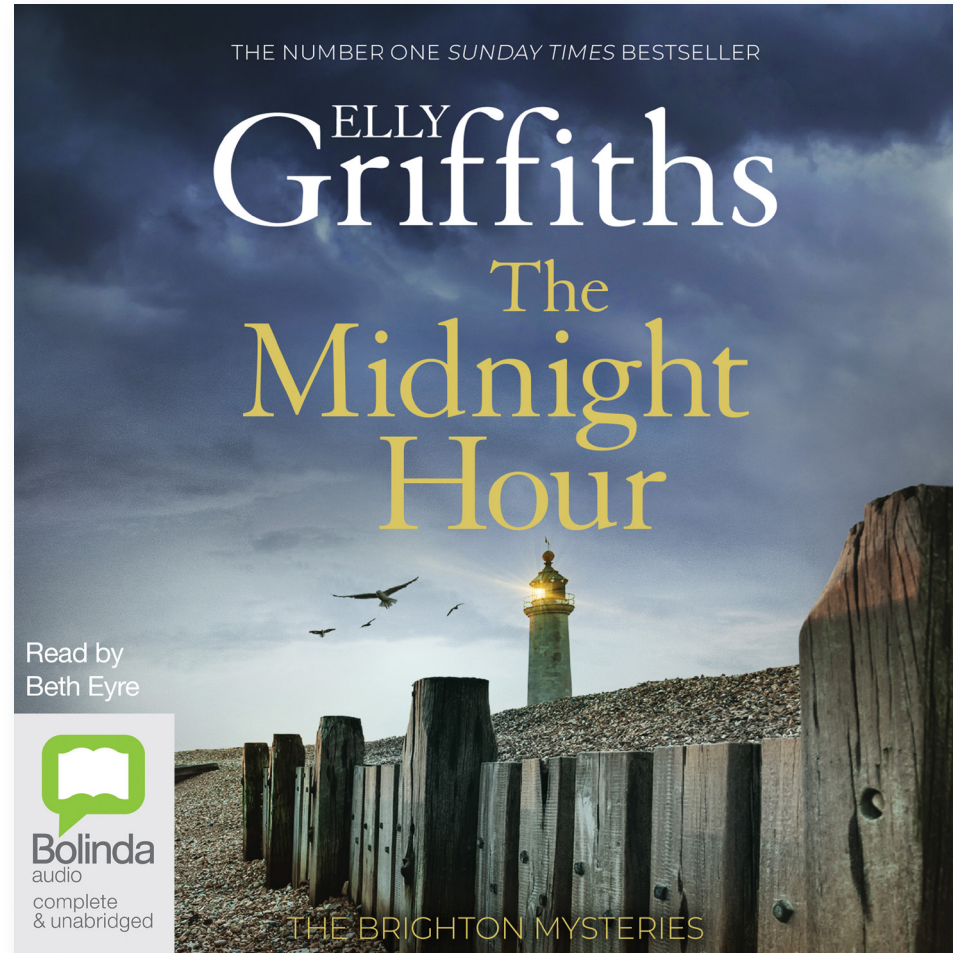

Brighton Mysteries #6

Elly Griffiths

Read by Beth Eyre

Adult New Release

Crime & Thriller | June 2024

A twisty new murder story from the bestselling author of the Dr Ruth Galloway Mysteries. An old man lies dead, and it looks like poison, but his wife isn't the only one who had reason to kill him.

Brighton, 1965. When theatrical impresario Bert Billington is found dead in his retirement home, no one suspects foul play. But when the post-mortem reveals that he was poisoned, suspicion falls on his wife, eccentric ex-music hall star Verity Malone.

Frustrated by the police response to Bert's death and determined to prove her innocence, Verity calls in private detective duo Emma Holmes and Sam Collins. This is their first real case, but as luck would have it, they have a friend on the inside – Max Mephisto is filming a remake of Dracula, starring Seth Billington, Bert's son. But when they question Max, they feel he isn't telling them the whole story.

Emma and Sam must vie with the police to untangle the case and bring the killer to justice. They're sure the answers must lie in Bert's dark past and in the glamorous, occasionally deadly, days of Music Hall. But the closer they get to the truth, the more danger they find themselves in ...

Elly Griffiths is the author of the Dr Ruth Galloway Mystery series, as well as the standalone novel The Stranger Diaries, which won the Edgar Award for Best Novel

Griffiths is the recipient of the CWA Dagger in the Library Award and the Mary Higgins Clark Award

'Griffiths writes with verve and wit, and has an unflinchingly keen eye ... deliriously entertaining.' – The Irish Times

Fallen Skies

Philippa Gregory

Read by Bianca Amato

An extraordinary story of the turmoil and ugly legacy of the First World War from the bestselling author of Tidelands.

Lily Valance wants to forget the war. She's determined to enjoy the world of the 1920s, with its music, singing, laughter and pleasure.

When she meets Captain Stephen Winters, a decorated hero back from the Front, she's drawn to his wealth and status. In Lily he sees his salvation – from the past, from the nightmare, from the guilt at surviving the Flanders plains where so many were lost. But it's a dream that cannot last. Lily has no intention of leaving her singing career.

The hidden tensions of the respectable facade of the Winters household come to a head. Stephen's nightmares merge ever closer with reality and the truth of what took place in the mud and darkness brings him and all who loves him to a terrible reckoning ...

Philippa Gregory is one of the world's foremost historical novelists, her works that have been adapted for television include A Respectable Trade, The Other Boleyn Girl and The Queen's Fool

Philippa is a member of the Society of Authors and in 2016, was presented with the Outstanding Contribution to Historical Fiction Award by the Historical Writers' Association

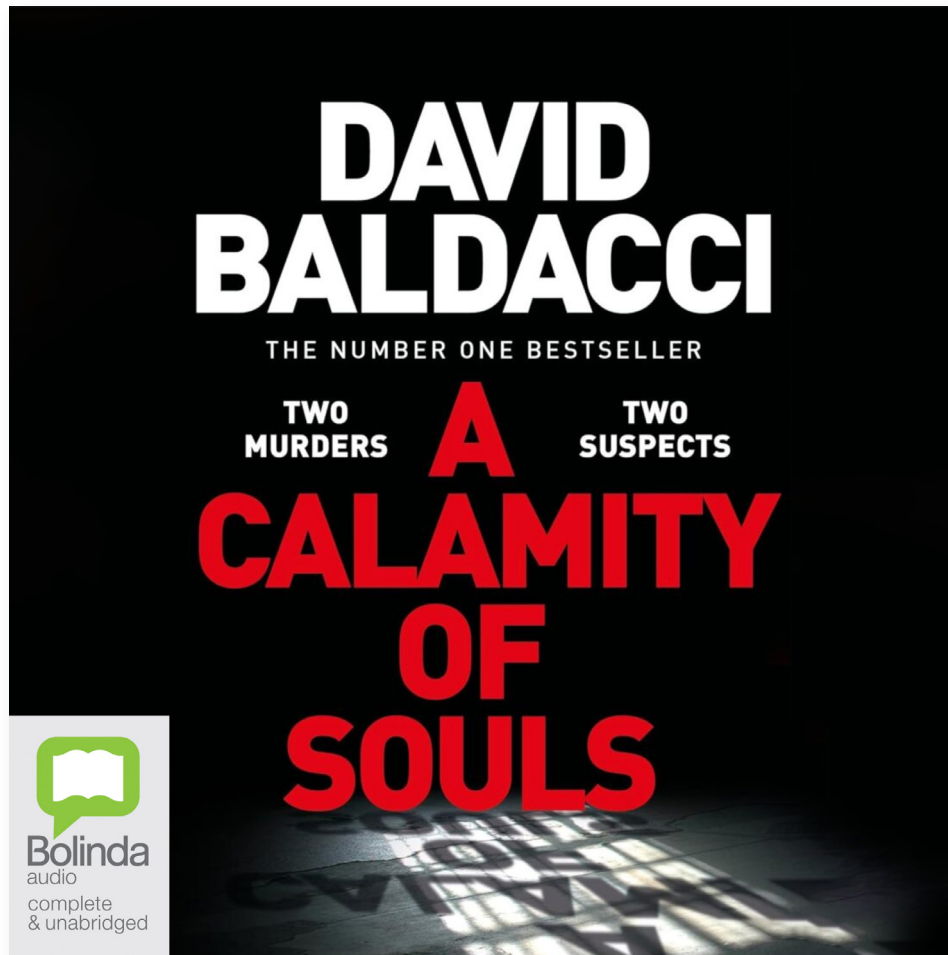

In 2018, Gregory was awarded an Honorary Platinum Award by Nielsen for achieving significant lifetime sales across her entire book output

'This great doorstep of a romantic tragedy illustrates Gregory's winning formula: A young woman triumphs despite a hostile male society.' – Kirkus Reviews

A Calamity of Souls

David Baldacci

Read by a Full Cast

A racially-charged murder case sets a duo of Black and white lawyers against a deeply unfair system as they work to defend their wrongfully-accused Black defendants in this courtroom drama from the number one bestselling author David Baldacci.

Jack Lee is a white lawyer from Freeman County, Virginia, who has never done anything to push back against racism, until he decides to represent Jerome Washington, a Black man charged with brutally killing an elderly and wealthy white couple. Doubting his decision, Lee fears that his legal skills may not be enough to prevail in a case where the odds are already stacked against both him and his client. And he quickly finds himself out of his depth when he realises that what is at stake is far greater than the outcome of a murder trial.

Desiree DuBose is a Black lawyer from Chicago who has devoted her life to furthering the causes of justice and equality for everyone. She comes to Freeman County and enters a fractious and unwieldy partnership with Lee in a legal battle against the best prosecutor in the Commonwealth. Yet DuBose is also aware that powerful outside forces are at work to blunt the victories achieved by the Civil Rights era.

David Baldacci is one of the world's bestselling and favourite thriller authors. A former trial lawyer with a keen interest in world politics, he has specialist knowledge in the US political system and intelligence services

Baldacci has published 49 titles for adults. All have been national and international bestsellers, several have been adapted for film and television and are published in over 45 languages and in more than 80 countries, with 150 million copies sold worldwide

'Baldacci is the master.' – Jeffrey Archer, author of Next in Line

'A high-octane legal thriller anchored by a family drama that will break your heart.'
– Ken Follett

Too Late

Colleen Hoover

Read by a Full Cast

A psychological suspense story of obsession and dangerous love from the #1 New York Times bestselling author of Verity.

Sloan will go through hell and back for those she loves. And she does so, every single day. Caught up with the alluring Asa Jackson, a notorious drug trafficker, Sloan has finally found a lifeline to cling to, even if it's meant compromising her morals. She was in dire straits trying to pay for her brother's care until she met Asa. But as Sloan became emotionally and economically reliant on him, he in turn developed a disturbing obsession with her – one that becomes increasingly dangerous every day.

When undercover DEA agent Carter enters the picture, Sloan's surprised to feel an immediate attraction between them, despite knowing that if Asa finds out, he will kill him. And Asa has always been a step ahead of everyone in his life, including Sloan. No one has ever gotten in his way.

No one except Carter.

Together, Sloan and Carter must find a way out before it's too late ...

Hoover won the Goodreads Choice Award for Best Romance three years in a row – for Confess (2015), It Ends with Us (2016) and Without Merit (2017)

'It's filled with suspense. It's romance. It's spicy ... And you can't help but hope and pray that Sloan gets her miracle and her happy ever after.' – LoveReading

'The mega-selling TikTok phenomenon and author of Verity delivers a razor-sharp psychological thriller, as Sloan tries to break away from her toxic relationship with a dangerous drug trafficker.' – Waterstones

The Household

Stacey Halls

Read by Tuppence Middleton and Sophia Money-Coutts

From the Sunday Times bestselling author and winner of the Women's Prize Futures Award comes the captivating, highly anticipated story, inspired by real historical figures and events.

London, 1847. In a quiet house in the countryside outside London, the finishing touches are being made to welcome a group of young women. The house and its location are top secret, its residents unknown to one another, but the girls have one thing in common – they are fallen. Offering refuge for prostitutes, petty thieves and the destitute, Urania Cottage is a second chance at life – but how badly do they want it?

Meanwhile, a few miles away in a Piccadilly mansion, millionairess Angela Burdett-Coutts, one of the benefactors of Urania Cottage, makes a discovery that leaves her cold. Her stalker of ten years has been released from prison, and she knows it's only a matter of time before their nightmarish game resumes once more.

As the women's worlds collide in ways they could never have expected, they will discover that freedom always comes at a price.

Stacey Halls is the bestselling author of The Familiars, which won a Betty Trask Award and was shortlisted for the British Book Awards' Debut Book of the Year

Halls studied journalism at the University of Central Lancashire and has written for publications including the Guardian, Stylist, Psychologies, The Independent, The Sun and Fabulous

'Stacey Halls is a writer of great originality, great imagination and great sense of place. Atmospheric, intelligent, accessible, every novel is worth reading, then reading again and again.' – Kate Mosse, bestselling author

The Conditions of Unconditional Love

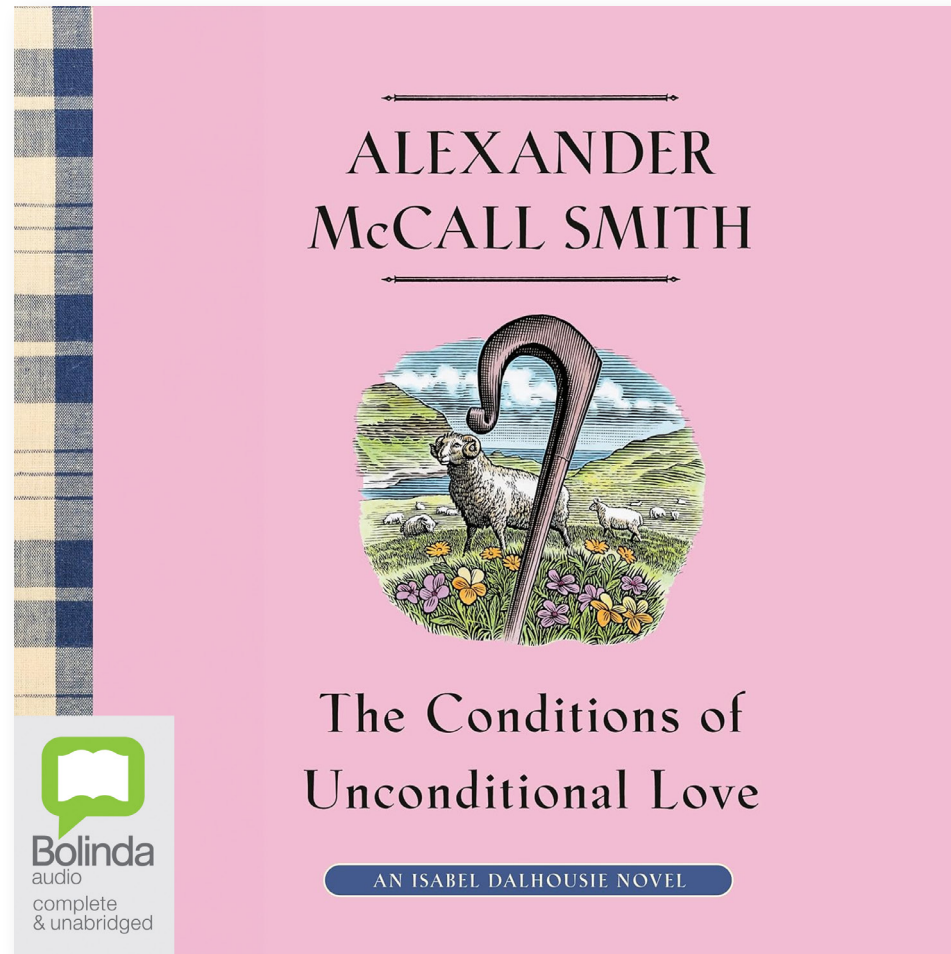

Isabel Dalhousie #15

Alexander McCall Smith

Read by Stephanie Moore

Adult New Release

Contemporary Fiction | June 2024

In this latest instalment of the beloved Isabel Dalhousie series, Isabel finds herself navigating tricky problems both public and personal ...

Isabel Dalhousie, everyone's favourite moral philosopher, is once again called on to help navigate a decidedly delicate dispute with all of the insight and compassion she has become known for.

What makes Isabel's investigations so unique is her uncanny ability to view all sides of a situation with coolness and reserve – and she will tap deep into her stores of both in order to help see this one through. Meanwhile, Isabel and her husband Jamie will together be dealing with tricky personal issues of their own.

Philosophical observations and humorous asides abound in this 15th instalment of the beloved series.

Alexander McCall Smith is one of the world's most prolific and best loved authors, whose title have been translated into 46 languages and become bestsellers throughout the world

In 2015, McCall Smith received the Bollinger Everyman Wodehouse Prize for Comic Fiction and in 2017, The National Arts Club of America Medal of Honor for Achievement in Literature

'McCall Smith's assessments of fellow humans are piercing and profound ... [His] depictions of Edinburgh are vivid and seamless.' – San Francisco Chronicle

'McCall Smith's greatest gift as a writer – and God knows this is just one of many – is that he can write likeable characters.' – The New Statesman (on The Quiet Side of Passion)

The Book That Broke the World

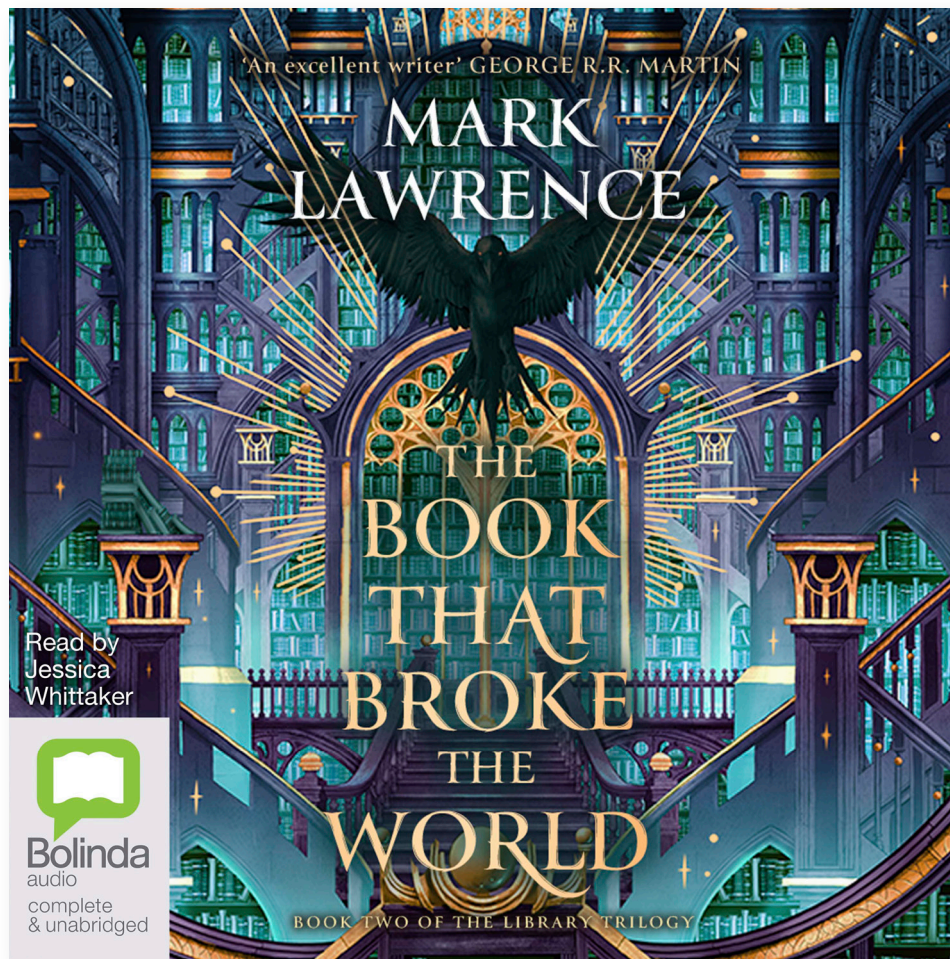

The Library Trilogy #2

Mark Lawrence

Read by Jessica Whittaker

Adult New Release

Fantasy Fiction | June 2024

The second volume in the bestselling, ground-breaking Library Trilogy, following The Book That Wouldn't Burn.

We fight for the people we love. We fight for the ideas we want to be true.

Evar and Livira stand side by side and yet far beyond each other's reach. Evar is forced to flee the library, driven before an implacable foe. Livira, trapped in a ghost world, has to recover her book if she's to return to her life. While Evar's journey leads him outside into the vastness of a world he's never seen, Livira's destination lies deep inside her own writing, where she must wrestle with her stories in order to reclaim the volume in which they were written.

All the while, the library quietly weaves thread to thread, bringing the scattered elements of Livira's old life – friends and foe alike – back together beneath new skies.

Long ago, a lie was told, and with the passing years it has grown and spread, a small push leading to a chain of desperate consequences. Now, as one edifice topples into the next with ever-growing violence, it threatens to break the world.

The Library Trilogy is about many things: adventure, discovery, and romance, but it's also a love letter to books and the places where they live

Mark Lawrence was nominated and shortlisted for the Nobel Peace Prize as a contributor to a North Carolina committee on justice reform in 2021

In 2014, Lawrence won the David Gemmell Legend Award for best novel for Emperor of Thorns

'Gripping, earnest, and impeccably plotted.' – Kirkus Reviews

Murder at the Allotment

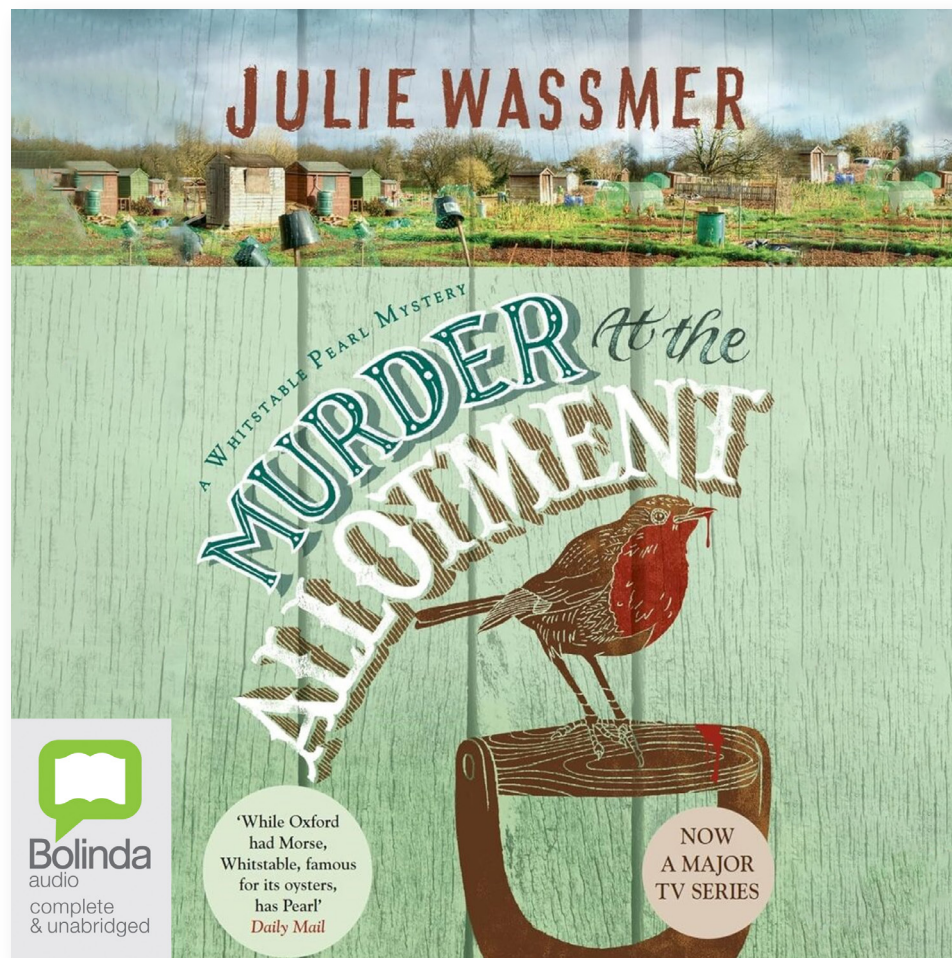

Whitstable Pearl Mystery #10

Julie Wassmer

Read by Jennifer Kirby

Adult New Release

Crime & Thriller | June 2024

The tenth in Julie Wassmer's popular crime series – now a major Acorn TV drama, Whitstable Pearl, starring Kerry Godliman as private detective and restaurateur, Pearl Nolan.

Pearl Nolan's coastal allotment has always been a quiet haven – somewhere for her to relax and cultivate special ingredients for her restaurant, The Whitstable Pearl. But a sudden clamour for allotments by the DFLs – Down From Londoners – causes tension in the local community when the council decides to accommodate them by dividing existing plots into smaller parcels. The harmony that once existed between holders of land previously blighted only by slugs and caterpillars, soon transforms into a bitter turf war as a pushy DFL tries to take over by forming an Allotment Association – with herself as its chair.

When anonymous complaints are submitted to the council about each of the local allotment holders – apart from the DFLs – Pearl's services as private detective are called upon to discover the complainant but before she can do so, what began as a tiff among the turnips soon becomes a hunt for a killer when gardening tools are put to murderous use ...

Julie Wassmer is the author of More Than Just Coincidence, which entered the Sunday Times Bestselling Non-Fiction Top 20 and went on to become 'Mumsnet' Book of the Year

Wassmer worked on several TV series, including ITV's London's Burning, C5's Family Affairs and the popular BBC soap, EastEnders, which she wrote for almost 20 years

'With her talent for evoking the delights of good eating while enjoying the sea breeze, Julie Wassmer is the perfect deckchair companion.' – Daily Mail (on Disappearance at Oare)

'This is a delightful murder-cum-gastro mystery set in a beautiful part of England. Enjoy.' – Trip Fiction (on Murder on the Pilgrims Way)

Death of a Spy

A Hamish Macbeth Murder Mystery #36

M.C. Beaton & R.W. Green

Read by David Monteath

Adult New Release

Crime & Thriller | June 2024

Sergeant Hamish Macbeth faces a string of mysterious robberies that are only the beginning of an international threat to his sleepy Scottish village in the latest mystery in M.C. Beaton's New York Times bestselling series.

Sergeant Hamish Macbeth has some major problems to deal with – crimes and criminals, even law enforcement agents, that he doesn't want anywhere near his beloved Highland village in Lochdubh. Hamish is worried about how the locals, as well as those in the wider area of his territory in Sutherland, will react to his new assistant officer. The officer is none other than the enigmatic American James Bland who is on an exchange scheme from his home city of Chicago in the United States, supposedly to study policing methods in Scotland.

Hamish knows that this is far from the truth. Having recently become involved in identifying a Russian spy ring to solve a murder, he is aware that Bland's mission is to track down the members of the spy network still at large. Bland trusts Hamish to help him find all of those who may have been, or may still be, in league with the Russians.

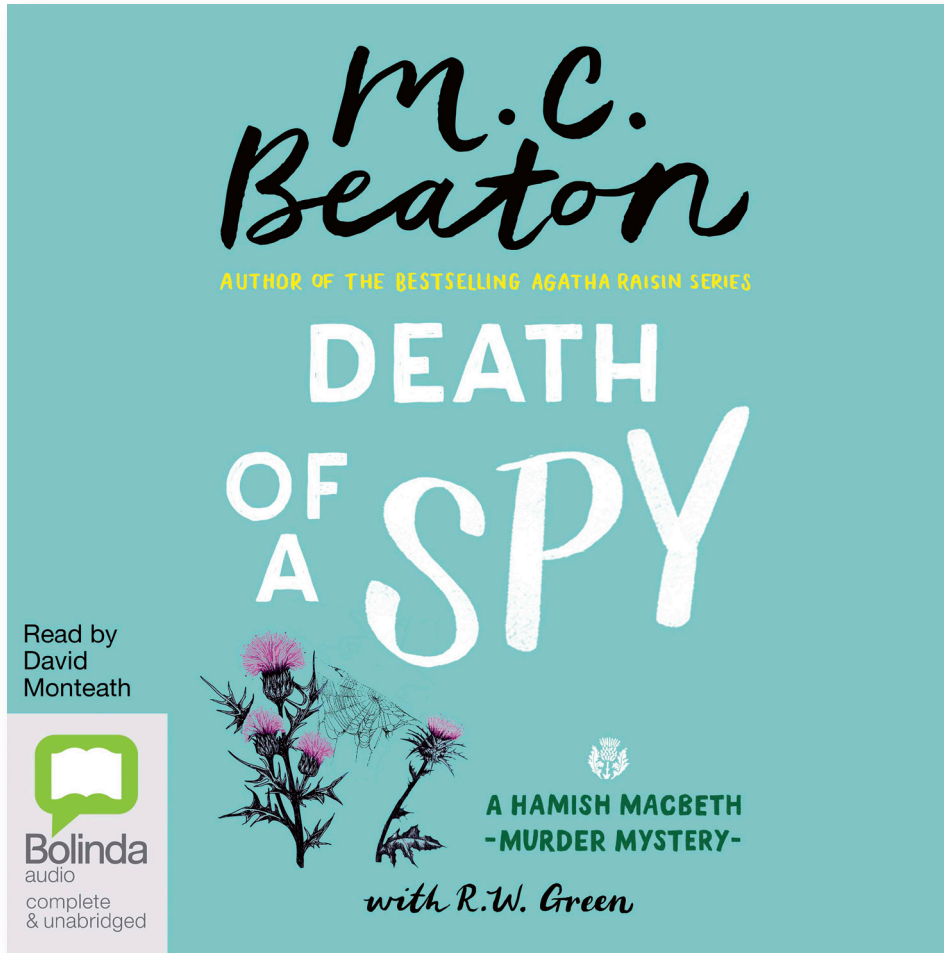

In the meantime, he and Bland have to contend with the everyday chores of rural policing.

M.C. Beaton, hailed as the 'Queen of Crime' by the Globe and Mail, was the author of the New York Times and USA Today bestselling Agatha Raisin novels

Beaton's titles have been translated into 17 languages and have sold more than 22 million copies worldwide

'Beaton and Green do a superb job keeping the red herrings coming and the plot twists jumping out at you until the finale.' – Bookreporter (on Death of a Green-Eyed Monster)

'A fine mix of eccentric characters, vivid landscape and engaging mystery.' – Booklist, starred (on Death of a Liar)

Mania

Lionel Shriver

Read by Abby Craden

Hilarious, deadpan, scathing and at times frighteningly plausible, Mania will delight the many fans of Shriver's fiction and journalism alike.

In a reality not too distant from our own, where the so-called Mental Parity Movement has taken hold, the worst thing you can call someone is 'stupid'.

Everyone is equally clever, and discrimination based on intelligence is 'the last great civil rights fight'.

Exams and grades are all discarded, and smart phones are rebranded. Children are expelled for saying the S-word and encouraged to report parents for using it. You don't need a qualification to be a doctor.

Best friends since adolescence, Pearson and Emory find themselves on opposing sides of this new culture war. Radio personality Emory – who has built her career riding the tide of popular thought – makes increasingly hard-line statements while, for her part, Pearson believes the whole thing is ludicrous.

As their friendship fractures, Pearson's determination to cling onto the 'old bigoted way of thinking' begins to endanger her job, her safety and even her family.

Lionel Shriver is a novelist whose previous books include Orange Prize-winner We Need to Talk About Kevin, The Post-Birthday World, A Perfectly Good Family, Game Control, Double Fault, The Female of the Species, Checker and the Derailleurs and Ordinary Decent Criminals

Also a widely published as a journalist, Shriver has written features, columns, op-eds and book reviews for the Guardian, the New York Times, the Wall Street Journal, the Financial Times, the Economist, Marie Claire and many other publications

'An independent mind and a sense of humour are dangerous things to possess. The spiky, politically incorrect novelist Lionel Shriver has them in abundance.' – The Times (on Abominations)

The Main Character

Jaclyn Goldis

Narrator to come

A bestselling thriller author arranges a luxury train trip that is not what it appears to be in this electrifying modern homage to Agatha Christie.

Reclusive, mysterious author Ginevra Ex is famous for her unusual approach to crafting her big bestselling thrillers – she hires real people and conducts intensive interviews, then fictionalises them. Her latest main character, Rory, is thrilled when Ginevra presents her with an extravagant bonus – a lavish trip along Italy’s Mediterranean coast on the famed, newly renovated Orient Express. But when Rory boards the train, she’s stunned to discover that her brother, her best friend and even her ex-fiancé are passengers, as well. All invited by Ginevra, all hiding secrets.

With each stop, from Cinque Terre to Rome to Positano, it becomes increasingly clear that Ginevra has masterminded the ultimate real life twisty plot with Rory as her main character. And as Ginevra’s deceptions mount, and the lies and machinations of Rory’s travel companions pile up, Rory begins to fear that her trip will culminate like one of Ginevra’s books – with a murder or two. In the opulent compartments of the iconic train, Rory must untangle the shocking reasons why Ginevra wanted them all aboard – and to what deadly end.

Perfect for fans of Ruth Ware, Lucy Foley and Paula Hawkins

Goldis is the author of The Chateau and the historical women’s fiction, When We Were Young

‘The Main Character is full steam ahead when it comes to betrayals and secrets, all wrapped up in a deliciously claustrophobic ride that you’ll never forget.’ – Finley Turner, author of The Engagement Party

‘Suspenseful, stylish and seductive – what you’d expect from Jaclyn Goldis – but with something deeper at its core: a love letter to family. The Main Character is a runaway train that will leave you mesmerized. All aboard!’ – Alex Finlay, author of If Something Happens to Me

The Four

Ellie Keel

Read by Ell Potter

Four scholarship students' dreams come true when they are accepted into an exclusive boarding school, but they will soon be bound by a dark secret that could save one of them ... or destroy them all.

We were always The Four. From our very first day at High Realms. The four scholarship pupils. Outsiders in a world of power and privilege.

It would have made our lives a lot easier if Marta had simply pushed Genevieve out of our bedroom window that day. Certainly, it would have been tragic. She would have died instantly.

But Marta didn't push her then, or – if you choose to believe me – at any other time. If she had, all of what we went through would not have happened.

I've told this story as clearly as I could – as rationally as I've been able, in the circumstances, to achieve. I don't regret what we did. And I would do it all again.

Dark academia perfect for fans of The Secret History and If We Were Villains

Ellie Keel is an award-winning producer, campaigner and the founder director of The Women's Prize for Playwriting, a literary prize and campaign for gender equality among writers for the stage in the UK and Ireland

In 2022 Keel was the youngest producer ever to be shortlisted for Producer of the Year in The Stage Awards

'A dark, compelling and beguiling novel of revenge, guilt and love – Ellie Keel is a dazzling new voice.' – Kate Mosse, bestselling author

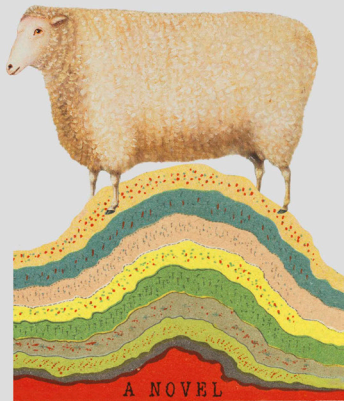

'An intensely gripping, thrilling and darkly beautiful debut. I was hooked.' – Karin Slaughter, New York Times and international bestselling author

Equal parts hilarious and profound, The Alternatives is a powerful new novel about four gifted Irish sisters, from a major literary voice.

The Flattery sisters were plunged prematurely into adulthood when their parents died in tragic circumstances. Now in their 30s – all single, all with PhDs – they are each attempting to do meaningful work in a rapidly foundering world. The four lead disparate, distanced lives, from classrooms in Connecticut to ritzy catering gigs in London’s Notting Hill, until one day their oldest sister, a geologist haunted by a terrible awareness of the earth’s future, abruptly vanishes from her work and home.

Together for the first time in years, the Flatterys descend on the Irish countryside in search of a sister who doesn’t want to be found. Sheltered in a derelict bungalow, they reach into their common past, confronting both old wounds and a desperately uncertain future.

Warm, fiercely witty and unexpectedly hopeful, The Alternatives is an unforgettable portrait of a family perched on our collective precipice, told by one of Ireland’s most gifted storytellers.

Perfect for fans of Jonathan Franzen, Maggie O’Farrell and Claire Vaye Watkins

Caoilinn Hughes is the author of The Wild Laughter, which won the Royal Society of Literature’s Encore Award, was longlisted for the Dylan Thomas Prize, and was a finalist for three other awards

Caoilinn was recently the Oscar Wilde Centre Writer Fellow at Trinity College Dublin, and is now a Cullman Fellow at the New York Public Library

‘The Alternatives unfolds in a prose full of gorgeous surprises and glows with intelligence, compassion, and beauty.’ Hernan Diaz, Pulitzer Prize-winning author of Trust

‘The Alternatives is fizzy, brainy and brilliant, always at the service of a drama of great emotional power. Caoilinn Hughes is an extraordinarily gifted writer.’ Joseph O’Neill, author of Netherland and The Dog

The Forbidden Daughter

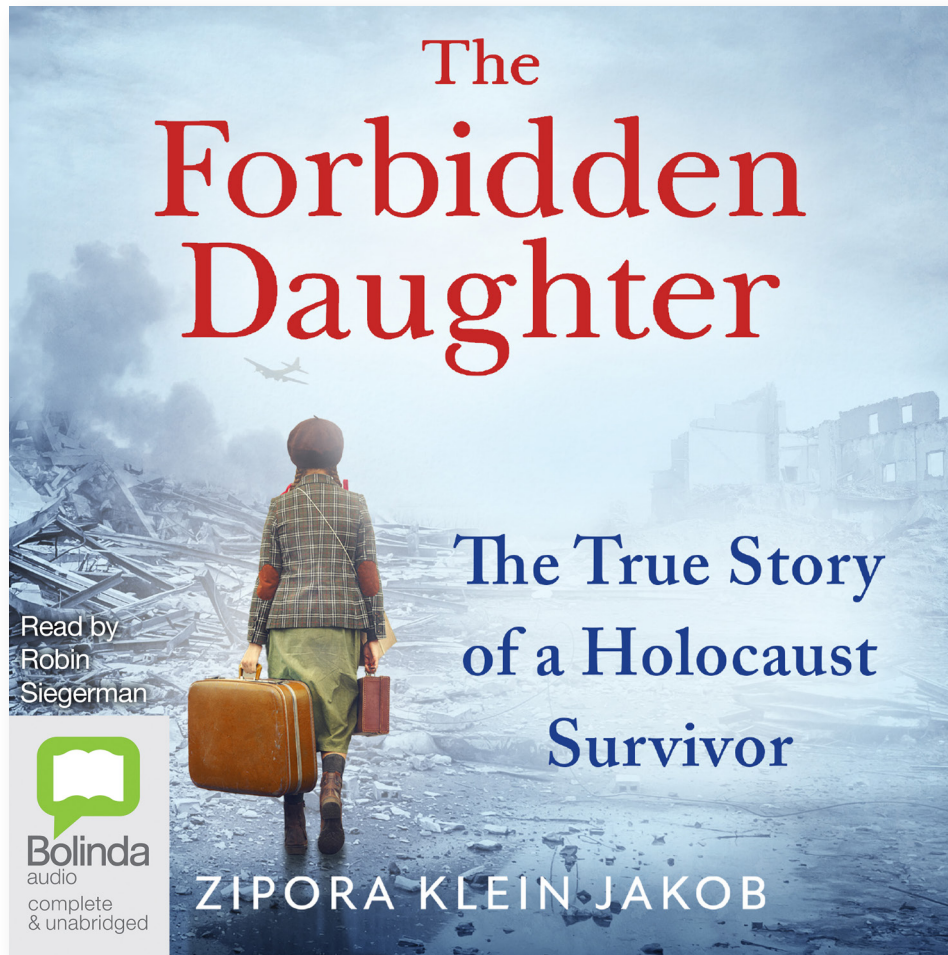

The True Story of a Holocaust Survivor

Zipora Klein Jakob

Read by Robin Siegerman

Adult New Release

History | June 2024

The unforgettable true story of a girl born in the Kovno Ghetto, and the dangerous risk her parents faced in defying the barbarous Nazi law prohibiting childbirth.

Elida Friedman was never supposed to have been born. In the Kovno Ghetto in Lithuania, Nazi law forbade Jewish women from giving birth. Yet despite the danger they faced, Dr Jonah Friedman and his wife Tzila, choose to bring a daughter into the world – a little girl they name Elida, meaning ‘non-birth’ in Hebrew.

To ensure her survival, the couple must smuggle their precious baby out of the ghetto into the arms of strangers. So begins a life of constant upheaval, with Elida changing families, countries, continents and even names, countless times. Surviving the war and the Holocaust that stole her parents, the young woman never gives up hope of finding a sense of family, and the chance to belong.

A moving, powerful chronicle of overcoming impossible odds, The Forbidden Daughter is the true story of one unforgettable girl and her will to survive.

Zipora Klein Jakob holds academic degrees in Literature and History

Jakob has carried out historical investigations, which led her on the journey of historical discovery and verification that greatly influenced Elida, the Forbidden Ghetto Girl

The Dales Detective Series #9

Julia Chapman

Read by Elizabeth Bower

Adult New Release

Crime & Thriller | June 2024

The ninth instalment in Julia's Chapman's witty and engaging Dales Detective series sees Delilah's brother under suspicion of murder. Can Delilah and Samson prove he's innocent?

The Dales Detective Agency is on the brink of closure.

Samson O'Brien has returned to his position as an undercover operative for the Met in London, and his relationship with Delilah is under pressure.

Their troubles are only multiplied when an ecologist is found dead and the finger of blame is pointed firmly at Delilah's older brother, Will Metcalfe.

It seems an open-and-shut case. An argument over an ecology report for planning permission got out of hand with Will, known to have a hot temper. But Delilah won't accept he's guilty and neither will Samson.

Dropping everything, he returns to Bruncliffe to help prove Will's innocence. But as the two detectives start digging, they unearth more than they bargained for and soon realise that the price of justice can be very costly indeed.

Julia Chapman is the pseudonym of Julia Stagg, who is the author of the Fogas Chronicles series set in the French Pyrenees

The Dales Detective series is cosy crime at its very best, perfect for fans of Richard Osman and Robert Thorogood

'Enlivened by numerous subplots ... the story moves at a cracking pace ... But Chapman's track record suggests that the next instalment will be well worth the wait.' – Daily Mail

'A classic whodunit set in the spectacular landscape of the Yorkshire Dales, written with affection for the area and its people.' – Cath Staincliffe, author of the Scott & Bailey series

Profile K

Helen Fields

Read by Jess Nesling

From the million-copy internationally bestselling author, Helen Fields, comes a devastatingly dark and gripping thriller you will devour in one sitting.

Midnight Jones is an analyst trained to understand the human mind. But everything changes when, in the course of her work, she discovers Profile K's file – because K stands for killer, and she knows that someone more dangerous than she could have ever imagined walks among them.

Midnight knows what Profile K is capable of before he even commits his first crime. But as the news rolls with the brutal murder of a local woman, no one believes what she tells them: that he's capable of so much more.

Profile K will kill again – and slowly, terrifyingly, Midnight realises that the moment she found his file was the moment she became his next target. Because Profile K is coming for Midnight – and the only way to escape with her life is to find him before he finds her ...

Helen Fields is an international and Amazon #1 bestselling author, as well as a former criminal and family law barrister

Fields's Perfect Kill was longlisted for the Crime Writers Association Ian Fleming Steel Dagger in 2020, and her other novels have been longlisted for the McIlvanney Scottish Crime Book of the Year

'Absolutely AMAZING. Tense, engrossing and gripping.' – Angela Marsons, #1 bestselling author of the Kim Stone series (on The Institution)

Good Things

Kate MacDougall

Read by Olivia Darnley

From author Kate MacDougall comes a funny and heartwarming story about two sisters, one absent father and a grand inheritance.

Maggie and Liz may be sisters (and yes, named after a pair of much more famous siblings) but that's about all they have in common. Maggie is a free spirit – travelling the world, flitting through life and relationships without ever really having to connect. Liz, meanwhile, is the lynchpin of Little Martin village society and determined to be the perfect wife, mother and homemaker – even if she does live in a new build.

When Liz and Maggie's beloved grandmother, Queen Vic, dies in a characteristically dramatic fashion, they are left to deal with the aftermath – inheriting the family Manor, as well as full responsibility for their profligate father, a notorious womaniser who causes trouble wherever he goes.

Maggie and Liz have been living separate lives for years – but now might finally be the time to put their differences behind them.

Kate MacDougall is a freelance journalist who specialises in the countryside, lifestyle, interiors and all things dogs, previously publishing the irresistibly charming memoir, London's No. 1 Dog-Walking Agency

MacDougall has written for The Telegraph, Country Life, Horse and Hound, Homes and Antiques and Period Living amongst others

'A joy from start to finish. I loved it!' – Stacey Halls, Sunday Times bestselling author of The Familiars (on London's No. 1 Dog-Walking Agency)

All Fours

Miranda July

Read by the Author

The New York Times bestselling author of The First Bad Man returns with an irreverently sexy, tender, hilarious and literary story about a woman upending her life.

A semi-famous artist announces her plan to drive cross-country from LA to NY. Thirty minutes after leaving her husband and child at home, she spontaneously exits the freeway, beds down in a nondescript motel and immerses herself in a temporary reinvention that turns out to be the start of an entirely different journey.

Miranda July's second novel confirms the brilliance of her unique approach to fiction. With July's wry voice, perfect comic timing, unabashed curiosity about human intimacy and palpable delight in pushing boundaries, All Fours tells the story of one woman's quest for a new kind of freedom. Part absurd entertainment, part tender reinvention of the sexual, romantic and domestic life of a 45-year-old female artist, All Fours transcends expectations while excavating our beliefs about life lived as a woman. Once again, July hijacks the familiar and turns it into something new and thrillingly, profoundly alive.

Miranda July's collection of stories, No One Belongs Here More Than You, won the Frank O'Connor International Short Story Award and has been published in 23 countries

July wrote, directed and starred in The Future and Me and You and Everyone We Know, which won the Caméra d'Or at the Cannes Film Festival and a Special Jury Prize at Sundance

'Profound and bawdy and deeply human, a brilliant work of art from a completely blown-open and fearless mind.' – Emma Cline, New York Times bestselling author of The Guest

'A giddy, bold, mind-blowing tour de force by one of our most important literary writers.' – George Saunders, Booker Prize-winning author of Lincoln in the Bardo

The Intruders

Louise Jensen

Read by Helen Keeley

The nailbiting new psychological thriller for from the bestselling author of The Date and The Fall.

They were told to leave. They should have listened ...

It should be the perfect opportunity: a manor house available rent free in exchange for a bit of housesitting. But when Cass and James dig deeper, they find the place has been abandoned since a robbery left almost all the inhabitants dead almost 30 years ago. But they've got to save for a deposit somehow, so they move in, and things quickly take a strange turn.

Objects disappear and turn up in odd places, the clock always stops at the same time, and the house is oppressive yet strangely familiar. Could it just be bad memories, or are the house's secrets a little closer to home?

Louise Jensen has sold over a million English language copies of her International #1 psychological thrillers The Sister, The Gift, The Surrogate, The Date, The Family, The Stolen Sisters, All for You and The Fall

Her novels have also been translated into 25 languages, as well as featuring on the USA Today and Wall Street Journal Bestseller's List

Jensen was nominated for the Goodreads Debut Author of 2016 Award and the Guardian's Not the Booker 2018, and her thrillers have been optioned for TV and film

'A gripping, edge-of-your-seat thriller you won't want to stop reading!' – Lauren North, author of All the Wicked Games

Black Duck

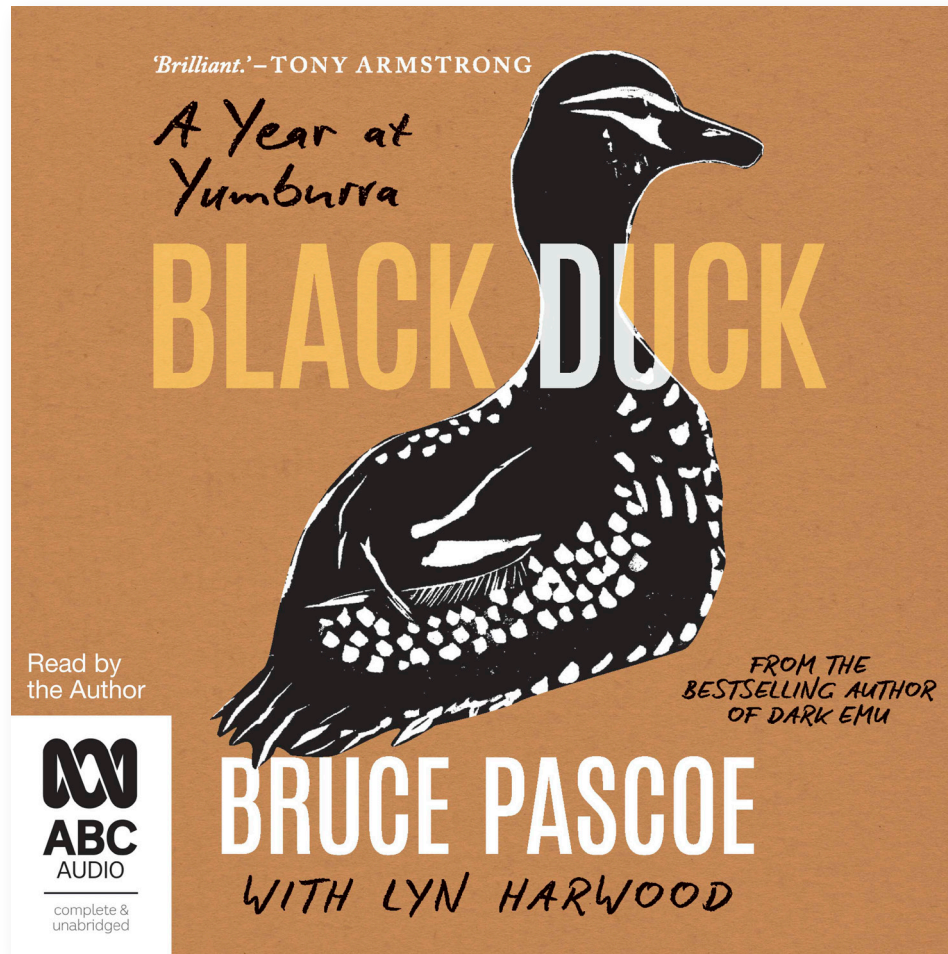

A Year at Yumburra

Bruce Pascoe

Read by the Author

Adult New Release

Autobiography | June 2024

From the bestselling author Bruce Pascoe comes a deeply personal story about the consequences and responsibility of disrupting Australia's history.

When Dark Emu was adopted by Australia like a new anthem, Bruce found himself at the centre of a national debate that often focussed on the wrong part of the story. But through all the noise came Black Duck Foods, a blueprint for traditional food growing and land management processes based on very old practices.

Bruce Pascoe and Lyn Harwood invite us to imagine a different future for Australia, one where we can honour our relationship with nature and improve agriculture and forestry. Where we can develop a uniquely Australian cuisine that will reduce carbon emissions, preserve scarce water resources and rebuild our soil. Bruce and Lyn show us that you don't just work Country, you look, listen and care. It's not Black Duck magic, it's the result of simply treating Australia like herself.

From the aftermath of devastating bushfires and the impact of an elder's death to rebuilding a marriage and counting the personal cost of starting a movement, Black Duck is a remarkable glimpse into a year of finding strength in Country at Yumburra.

Bruce Pascoe is a Bunurong, Yuin and Tasmanian Aboriginal writer of literary fiction, non-fiction, poetry, essays and children's literature

Pascoe is the enterprise professor in Indigenous Agriculture at the University of Melbourne

Pascoe is best known for his work Dark Emu: Aboriginal Australia and the Birth of Agriculture

Every Last Suspect

Nicola Moriarty

Read by a Full Cast

The gripping new thriller from the bestselling author of You Need to Know, perfect for fans of Sally Hepworth, Nina Simon and Jessie Stephens.

Complicated, driven, loving. Manipulative, irresistible, monstrous.

Whether you love or hate her, Harriet Osman is impossible to say no to. But someone in her life has finally snapped, and as Harriet lies dying, she is determined to figure out who her killer is.

Was it her devoted husband, Malek? Her best friend and sometimes lover, Victoria? Or the new woman in her life, fellow school mum Karen? The one with an impeccable reputation – until the night Harriet persuaded her into playing Two Truths and a Lie and revealed some deadly secrets.

Teenage bullies, complicated friendships and games (both in and out of the bedroom) combine with envy, obsession and revenge to create this twisty tale of drama and suspense that you won't be able to put down until you know for sure: who killed Harriet?

Nicola Moriarty is a bestselling, Sydney-based novelist, whose books have sold more than a quarter of a million copies worldwide

Moriarty's published works include the novels Free-Falling, Paper Chains, The Fifth Letter, Those Other Women, The Ex and You Need to Know; along with the novella Captivation and contributions to two UK anthologies

Hope

Rosie Batty

Read by the Author

The inspiring and deeply moving new book about finding peace from the bestselling author of A Mother's Story for readers of Leigh Sales, Julia Baird, Turia Pitt and Indira Naidoo

On a warm summer's evening in February 2014, 11-year-old Luke Batty was killed by his father at cricket practice. It was a horrific act of family violence that shocked Australia.

The next morning, his mother Rosie bravely stood before the media. Her powerful and gut-wrenching words about family violence galvanised the nation and catapulted her into the spotlight. From that day on, Rosie Batty campaigned tirelessly to protect women and children, winning hearts and minds with her courage and compassion, singlehandedly changing the conversation around domestic violence in this country. Rosie's remarkable efforts were recognised when she became the 2015 Australian of the Year and a year later she was named one of the World's Greatest Leaders by Fortune magazine. However, behind Rosie's steely public resolve and seemingly unbreakable spirit, she was a mum grieving the loss of her adored son.

Following on from her runaway best-seller A Mother's Story, which detailed the lead up to her son's murder, Hope shares what happened to Rosie the day after the worst day of her life and how she reclaimed hope when all hope was lost. In this heartfelt, and at times heartbreaking memoir, Rosie tells how she found the light on her darkest days and how she found hope to carry on.

Rosie Batty is a leader in the crusade against domestic violence and has turned her personal tragedy into a fight to help others

Her relentless work in this area led to Rosie being named the 2015 Australian of the Year and the Pride of Australia National Courage Medal recipient

Fortune Magazine has named Rosie one of its top 50 world's greatest leaders and Rosie was voted the most influential person in the Not for Profit sector on Pro Bono Australia's Impact 25 list and has been inducted into the Victorian Honour Roll of Women

Balcony Over Jerusalem

A Middle East Memoir – Israel, Palestine and Beyond

John Lyons

Read by Peter Houghton

Adult New Release

Autobiography | June 2024

An intimate account of the Israel-Palestine conflict and beyond, from one of Australia's most experienced foreign correspondents.

Leading Australian journalist John Lyons takes listeners on a fascinating personal journey through the wonders and dangers of the Middle East. In this updated edition, Lyons draws from his years living in Jerusalem to give context to the devastating war between Israel and Palestinians in Gaza and gives listeners a behind-the-scenes look at the Israeli occupation of the West Bank.

Having reported on the Middle East for three decades, Lyons has interviewed everyone from senior Israeli military and intelligence figures to key leaders from Hezbollah and Hamas. He's witnessed the brutal Iranian Revolutionary Guard up close, was kidnapped by Egyptian soldiers and was one of the last foreign journalists in Iran during the violent crackdown on the 'Green Revolution'. He's confronted Hamas officials about why they fire rockets into Israel and Israeli soldiers about why they fire tear gas at Palestinian school children.

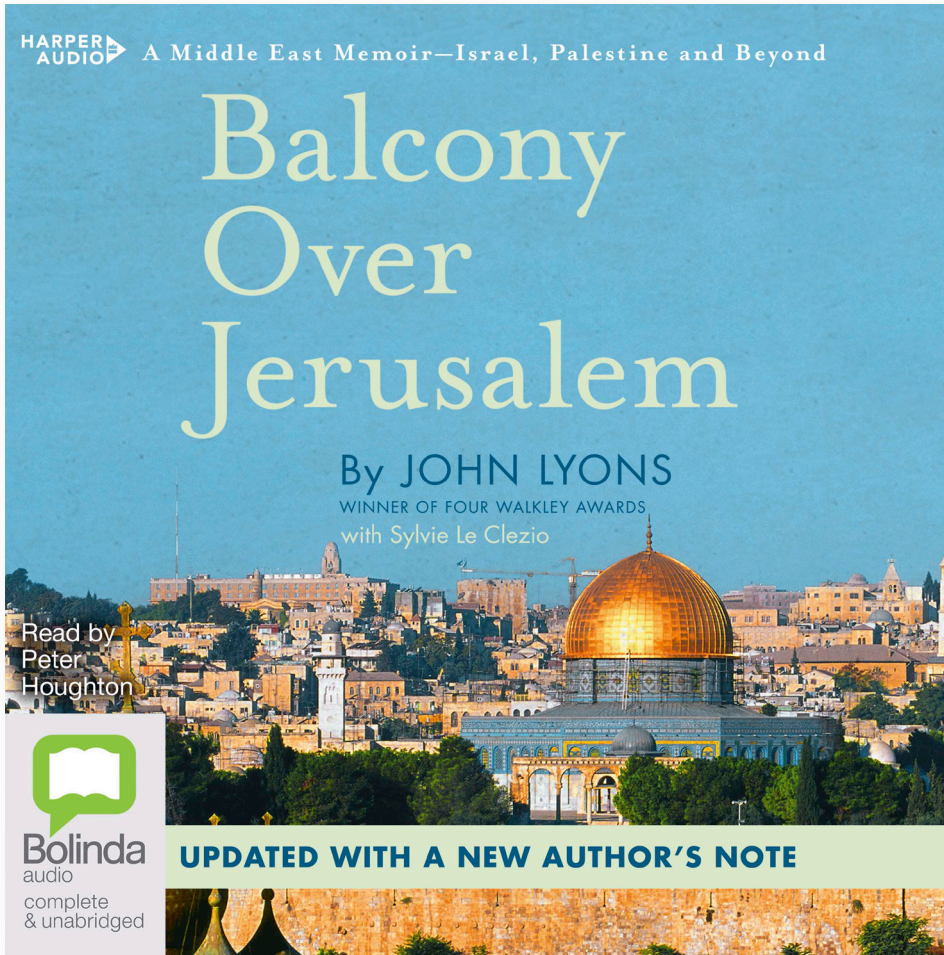

Beyond the politics and headlines, Lyons explains the Middle East through everyday life and experiences: his son's school, the markets and the conversations with friends on their balcony overlooking it all.

John Lyons is the Global Affairs Editor of the ABC. He has previously been the Editor of The Sydney Morning Herald, Executive Producer of the Nine Network's Sunday program and Head of Current Affairs and Investigations at the ABC

Lyons has been a foreign correspondent in Washington, New York, the Philippines and the Middle East, has won three Walkley Awards and has been the Graham Perkin Australian Journalist of the Year

'Lyons knows if you stand with the suffering, you're closer to the truth.' – Stan Grant, award-winning journalist and bestselling author

Because I'm Not Myself, You See

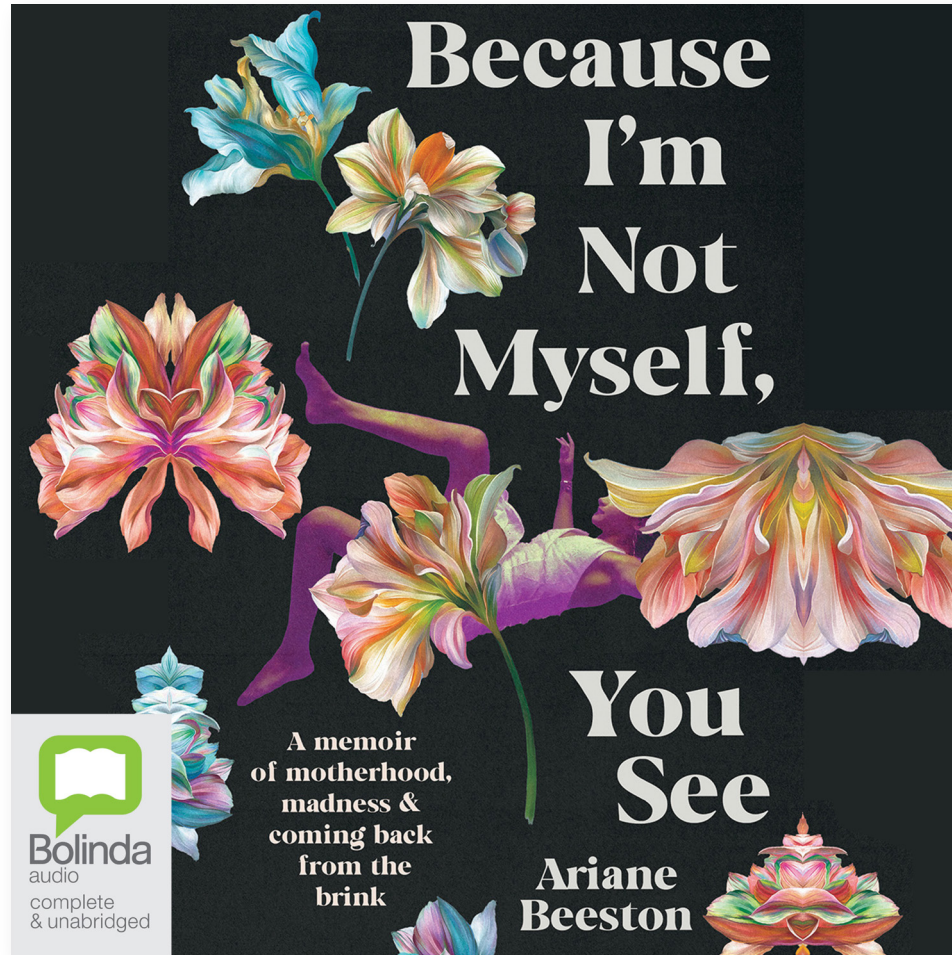

A Memoir of Motherhood, Madness and Coming Back from the Brink

Ariane Beeston

Read by the Author

Adult New Release

Autobiography | June 2024

A frank, hopeful and darkly funny memoir of postpartum psychosis and recovery.

Ariane Beeston is a child protection worker and newly registered psychologist when she gives birth to her first child – and very quickly begins to experience scary breaks with reality. Out of fear and shame, she keeps her delusions and hallucinations secret, but as the months pass Ariane gets worse. Much worse. Finally admitted to a mother and baby psychiatric unit, the psychologist is forced to learn how to be the patient.

With medication, the support of her husband, psychotherapy and, ultimately, time, Ariane rebuilds herself. And she also begins a new chapter working in perinatal mental health, developing resources to support other new mothers.

Because I'm Not Myself, You See is a candid, often humorous memoir of motherhood and madness, interwoven with research and expert commentary. It's the story of the impossible pressures placed on new mothers and how quickly things can go wrong during 'the happiest time of your life'.

Ariane Beeston is a former child protection caseworker and psychologist with NSW's Department of Communities and Justice

Beeston was a staff writer at Fairfax Media's 'Essential Baby' and 'Essential Kids' and has also published articles in The Sydney Morning Herald, Daily Life, Babyology and Mamamia

Beeston currently works for Australia's peak body in perinatal mental health, The Centre of Perinatal Excellence (COPE), as their Communications and Content Manager

'Ariane Beeston's honesty, poetry and wisdom will save lives ... a vital contribution to a reality of some motherhoods that is so often overlooked in favour of stigma, shame and misunderstanding.' – Anna Spargo-Ryan, author of A Kind of Magic

Barbara Hannay

Read by Jessica Stanley

Adult New Release

Romance | June 2024

The first in the heartwarming Outback Babies series from international award-winning Australian author Barbara Hannay.

She needs a little favour ...

Polly Martin has given up on love, but not on becoming a mother. She returns briefly to her hometown of Wirralong to proposition her childhood best friend, Seth Ramsay, confident he'll agree to be her IVF donor.

Seth walks out of their reunion dinner date after Polly's clinical and unemotional proposal. How could she think he was the type of man who wouldn't take an ongoing interest in his child? A year later, still haunted by Polly's question, he seeks her out in Melbourne and finds her heavily pregnant, unemployed and barely making ends meet. Seth invites Polly back to Wirralong for a weekend only to end up delivering her baby girl early and finding himself more charmed than he could have imagined.

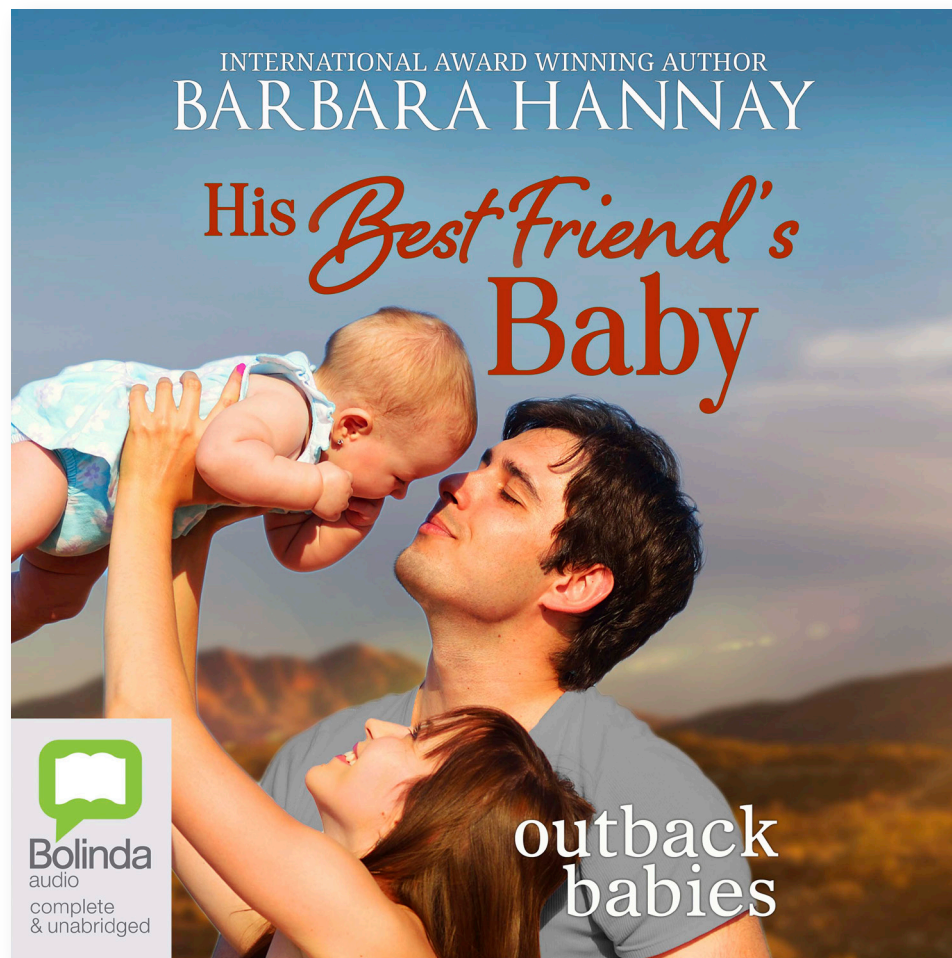

As Polly and her newborn recover at Seth's house, their friendship is back on, but Seth wants more. He feels like he's finally within reach of his dream when the town gossips send Polly fleeing home. And now Polly must ask herself searching questions, including where her new future lies.

Barbara Hannay is a former high school English teacher who was first published in 1999, since then she has written over 40 books

With more than 12 million copies sold worldwide, Hannay's novels have earned her five RITA nominations from Romance Writers of America and she won a RITA award in 2007

Hannay is also the recipient of two Romantic Book of the Year awards in Australia and one of her novels is currently being developed as a television movie by Brainpower in Canada

'Love, romance, forgiveness, this wonderful novel has it all in abundance. It is a feel-good, and sometimes heart-wrenching, story of love, loss and redemption. Its characters are endearing and the story realistic.' – Brisbanista (on The Sister's Gift)

Food and Fame, Failure and Freedom: The Life Story of Australia's First MasterChef

Julie Goodwin

Read by the Author

The extraordinary life story of Australia's beloved Julie Goodwin, first winner of MasterChef and bestselling cookbook author.

Julie Goodwin was catapulted into our hearts as the first-ever winner of MasterChef Australia. In many ways her win was unlikely. As a child, Goodwin adored music and art, but her career began in youth work, including in a juvenile detention centre housing troubled boys and a toxic all-male staff. After her three sons were born, she and her husband started an IT business.

Then came MasterChef – a record-breaking juggernaut of a show. The attention and opportunities that flowed from Goodwin's win were thrilling and overwhelming. She became a columnist for Australian Women's Weekly, a presenter on Today, published numerous cookbooks and made appearances on many shows including facing off with snakes and alligators on I'm A Celebrity ... Get Me Out of Here! For years she co-hosted an award-winning breakfast radio show, and she opened a thriving cooking school.

It was by all appearances, a successful, rewarding life. But under the surface, relentless pressure from Goodwin's outer and inner worlds was taking its toll. Struggling with depression, anxiety and addiction, with bushfires blazing and lockdowns looming, Goodwin found herself hospitalised in a mental health unit.

Since becoming Australia's first MasterChef, Central Coast mum-of-three Julie Goodwin has become a household name

Formerly an IT professional, Goodwin wrote a monthly column for the Australian Women's Weekly for ten years, and is a bestselling cookbook author

Goodwin's first cookbook, Our Family Table, is one of the highest selling cookbooks in Australian history

Love & Rome

Jenna Lo Bianco

Read by Isabella Giovinazzo

A romantic, spicy novel about an Australian in Italy by Italian-Australian author Jenna Lo Bianco; a story of sex, wine and pasta.

Moving from Melbourne to Rome was meant to fix Stella Chiaro's life – and it did, for a while. But destiny has other plans. With a one-way ticket home, artist Stella is running out of time and money. She is desperate to find stable work in the art world to keep afloat, or she will have to leave her beloved Eternal City behind.

The last thing she needs right now is distractions ... The arrival of the full moon brings both the sweet owner of the new local bar and a handsome new flatmate. The promise of a new job and new love suddenly beckon Stella, but she quickly finds herself repeating patterns she once vowed not to.

In a journey stretching to enchanting Florence and across the ancient cobblestones of Rome, Stella must free herself from the mess she's in. But is it too late? Will it be arrivederci to 'Rome Sweet Home'?

A romantic at heart, Italian-Australian Jenna Lo Bianco writes contemporary romances set in Italy that read like a fictional slice of la dolce vita

For fans of Under the Tuscan Sun, Emily in Paris and The Love Hypothesis

The Anglican Paedophile Network of Newcastle, Its Protectors and the Man Who Fought for Justice

Anne Manne

Read by Fiona Macleod

A searing expose of institutional child abuse, and the remarkable story of the survivors who would not be silenced.

For many years, Newcastle was the centre of an extensive paedophile network run by members of the Anglican church – and protected by parishioners and community members who looked the other way.

In this gripping audiobook, Anne Manne reveals how this network was able to avoid detection for so long, and how its ringleaders were finally exposed and brought to justice. At the centre of the story is a survivor, Steve Smith, who endured years of childhood abuse but refused to be silenced.

Drawing on extensive research and interviews with survivors, clergy, police and others, Manne explores how the network operated and how it became entrenched in the upper echelons of Newcastle society. She offers deep insights into the minds and strategies of abusers, and pays tribute to the victims and their tireless struggle for justice. Child sexual abuse has previously been thought of as an individual crime; Manne pioneers an examination of it as part of a network.

This is an unforgettable study of courage and faith in the face of unthinkable evil.

Anne Manne is an Australian journalist and social philosopher who has written widely on feminism, motherhood, childcare, family policy, fertility and related issues

Manne is the author of Love & Money, The Life of I and Motherhood, which was shortlisted for the 2006 Walkley non-fiction prize

A former columnist for The Australian and The Age, Manne has written many essays about contemporary culture, especially for The Monthly magazine

LYNDA HOLDEN
with Jo Tuscano

Proud Dhunghutti woman, lawyer, human rights advocate and former midwife Lynda Holden tells her own heart-breaking story and details her fight for justice.

In 1970, Lynda was 18, unmarried and pregnant when she was forced to give her baby up for adoption. She was sent by a doctor to a Catholic girls' home for unmarried mothers, and told she'd have no hope of keeping her child because she was Aboriginal.

After 26 years, Lynda was finally able to make contact with her lost son – but the much wished for reunion didn't go well. When she looked into the adoption records, she found a web of lies – lies about her family, the baby's father, her 'consent' for the adoption – and her Indigenous heritage had been completely erased.

So began a quest for justice: Lynda took on the Catholic Church in an attempt to right the wrongs of the past. In this incredibly powerful memoir, she sheds light on the lasting impacts of forced adoption on mothers, children and their families, and gives voice to the countless women who have been silenced for generations.

Lynda Holden, or Aunty Lynda as she is known to many in her community, is a proud Dhunghutti woman who is deeply passionate about social justice and human rights

Holden has worked in nursing, midwifery, mental health, human rights, law and social justice, and actively advocates for Aboriginal peoples in these disciplines

Jo Tuscano is the co-author of Back on the Block, the story of Bill Simon, a Biripi man, member of the Stolen Generation and an inmate of the notorious Kinchella Boys Home

Heartsease

Kate Kruiimink

Read by Eva Seymour

Heartsease is a novel set in present-day Tasmania, told from the alternating perspectives of two sisters, Ellen and Charlotte, and concerned with grief, love and memory.

I saw my mother for a long time after she died. I would see her out windows, or in the corner of my eye. Always in the periphery, always a dim blur, but unmistakably my mother, the herness skating through every line and flicker.

Charlotte ('Lot') and Ellen ('Nelly') are sisters who were once so close a Venn diagram of the two would have formed a circle. But a great deal has changed since their mother's death, years before. Clever, beautiful, gentle Lot has been unfailingly dutiful – basically a disaster of an older sister for much younger Nelly, still haunted by their mother in her early 30s. When the pair meet at a silent retreat in a strange old house in the Tasmanian countryside, the spectres of memory are unleashed.

Heartsease is a sad, sly and darkly comic story about the weight of grief and the ways in which family cleave to us, for better and for worse. It's an account of love and ghosts so sharp it will leave you with paper cuts.

Kate Kruiimink won the 2020 Vogel prize for her debut A Treacherous Country, was shortlisted in the Prime Minister's Literary Award for Fiction and longlisted in the UK for the Walter Scott Prize for Historical Fiction

In 2021, Kruiimink was one of the Sydney Morning Herald's Best Young Novelists

'Warm and lively ... a witty Tasmanian Moby Dick' – Tegan Bennett Daylight, author of Safety and Bombora (on A Treacherous Country)

The Engraver's Secret

Lisa Medved

Read by Claire Warrillow & Annabelle Tudor

The captivating new debut art history novel for fans of Jessie Burton, Tracy Chevalier and Maggie O'Farrell

Spanish Netherlands, 1620s. Raised by her father Lucas to know her mind, Antonia Vorsterman sees everything that goes on in her world – all the rivalries and jealousies that course through the artists' studios and workshops of Antwerp.

Drawn into the lively household of the artist Peter Paul Rubens, whose work her father engraves for a living, Antonia begins to see a life of colour and possibility for herself – until Lucas entrusts her with a terrible secret that will alter the course of their family's future.

Belgium, present day. Haunted by the recent loss of her mother, art historian Charlotte Hubert moves to Antwerp to research her hero, the Baroque master Rubens, and to seek answers about the father she's never met.

But a startling discovery hidden inside an ancient map folio turns Charlotte's quiet academic life into a dangerous hunt for long-lost treasures, missing for 400 years.

Centuries apart, Charlotte's and Antonia's lives intertwine as they unearth long-buried secrets about a master and his engraver where theft, betrayal and the fallout of family loyalty run rampant.

Among the Grey Gums

Paula J. Beavan

Read by Elizabeth Brennan

A woman must track down a murderer to save her brother from the hangman's noose, in this rollicking and entertaining historical mystery, from the Australian author of Daughter of the Hunter Valley.

1842, Hunter Valley. Lucy Stewart's life turns chaotic when she finds herself caught up in a murder investigation in order to save her brother-in-law, Joe, from the hangman's noose. Constable Sam Donovan believes the accusations levelled at Joe Stewart are suspicious at best and feels compelled to work with Lucy to find the real killer. Getting to know this fiercely independent woman in the process is a bonus.

Their pursuit brings them to the attention of the notorious Smokey Gang, and when Lucy is ambushed on a deserted bush track and threatened, they realise they must be getting close to finding out what is really going on in the Valley.

Life has taught Lucy the hard way not to rely on anyone, but Lucy needs Sam's sleuthing skills. However, she has secrets in her past, the kind that once revealed changes everything, and the only way she can find out if she can place her confidence in him is to trust him. And that's the hard part ...

An avid reader from childhood, Paula J. Beavan grew up on a small property in the Hunter Valley, riding horses, mustering cattle and listening to the tales of local farriers, cattlemen and farmers

The Metabolism Reset

Lara Briden

Read by the Author

A science-based guide to balancing insulin, losing weight and improving health from the bestselling author of Hormone Repair Manual.

Women's health expert Lara Briden believes that weight gain is primarily the symptom of metabolic dysfunction, not the cause. And if you have metabolic dysfunction, it's because something is amiss with your brain's regulatory mechanism, not your willpower.

Drawing on her experience with thousands of patients, Briden has created a ten-step trouble-shooting solution created specifically for women, which will help you identify your personal metabolic obstacles, such as hormonal issues, digestive problems, ultra-processed food, chronic stress and inadequate sleep. Briden offers actionable strategies for overcoming these obstacles and explains why a simple intervention, such as fixing your gut, can reverberate through your entire system and naturally and effortlessly help to regulate hunger and burn more energy.

Underpinned by solid science, patient studies and practical advice, this is a compassionate, reality-based guide to repairing your metabolism and reclaiming your health.

Lara Briden is a naturopathic doctor and bestselling author of Hormone Repair Manual, a practical guide to treating period problems with nutrition, supplements and bioidentical hormones

With a strong science background, Briden sits on several advisory boards and is the lead author on a couple of peer-reviewed papers

Briden has more than 25 years' experience in women's health and currently has consulting rooms in Christchurch, New Zealand, where she treats women with hormone and period-related health problems

'It is comprehensive and extensively researched.' – Brisbane (on Period Repair Manual)

Down the Track

Stella Quinn

Read by Fiona Macleod

Dr Joanne Tan is an expert in a lot of things. Love isn't one of them. Another unmissable funny, feel-good romance from the author of The Vet from Snowy River.

Being 30-something, broke, divorced and in a cold war with her 12-year-old son is a lot, but Jo's handling it. Just. At least, she is until her job at the Natural History Museum is in jeopardy. An invitation to dig up dinosaur bones on a remote Queensland sheep station arrives at just the right time.

It's not her first trip to Yindi Creek, but it's not as though anyone will remember her from 15 years ago ... and by anyone, of course, she means the pilot she had that fling with. The fling that taught her she's far safer sticking to science ...

Gavin 'Hux' Huxtable, helicopter pilot and reluctant sheepshearer, has turned his broken heart into a secret (and successful) writing career. But running into Jo again, all these years down the track stirs up a lot more than outback country dust.

Digging up the past isn't easy. Digging up the truth can be even harder.

Stella Quinn's indie series include The Island Escape Series and The Matchmakers of Lighthouse Cove Series

Quinn's awards in the fabulous world of storytelling include winning the Valerie Parv Award in 2018, the Sapphire Award in 2019 and 2020, and the Emerald Award in 2017

Quinn was also shortlisted in the Australian Society of Authors/HQ Fiction Commercial Fiction Award in 2020, and in the 2020 Ruby Award for best contemporary romance

'The perfect feel-good blend of warmth, wit and small-town charm.' – Alissa Callen, USA Today bestselling author (on The Vet from Snowy River)

'Quinn's warm tone, gentle humour and all-pervasive kindness shines ... it's a lively gallop with endearing characters and a satisfying ending that leaves a spring in your step and a smile on your lips.' – Better Reading (on A Home Among the Snow Gums)

Outspoken

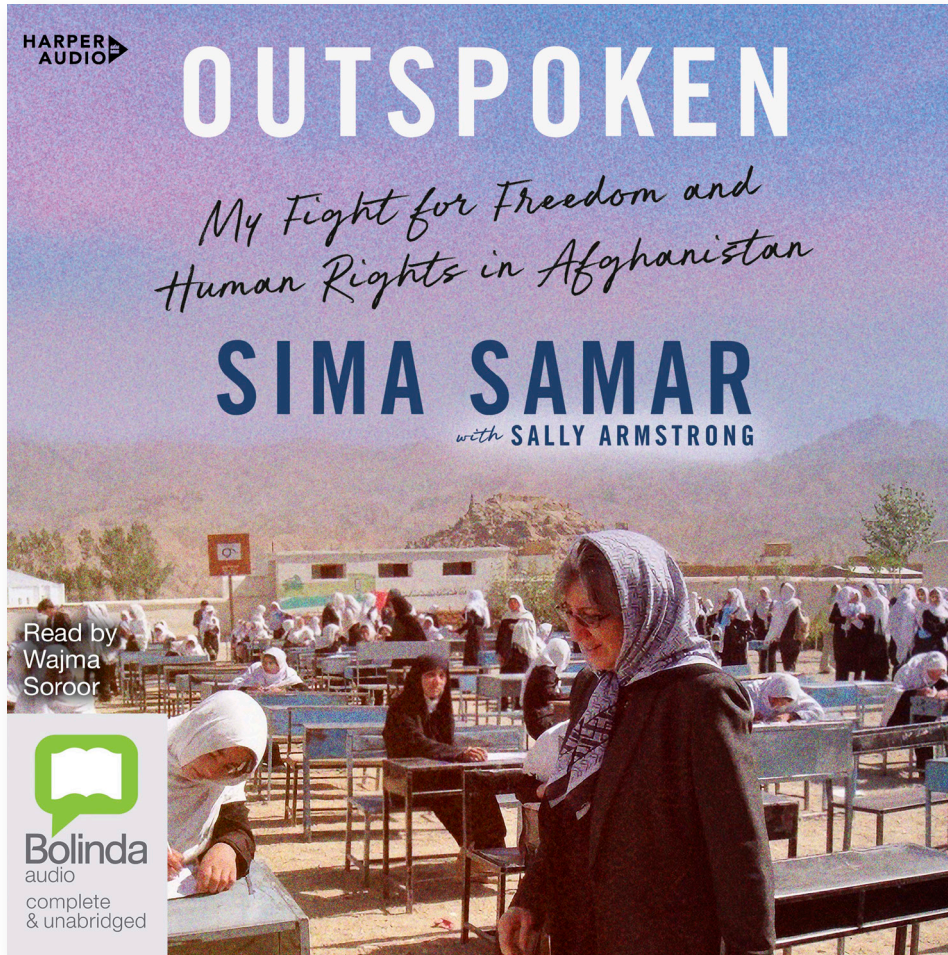

My Fight for Freedom and Human Rights in Afghanistan

Dr Sima Samar & Sally Armstrong

Read by Wajma Soroor

Adult New Release

Autobiography | June 2024

The impassioned memoir of Afghanistan's Sima Samar: medical doctor, public official, founder of schools and hospitals, thorn in the side of the Taliban, nominee for the Nobel Peace Prize and lifelong advocate for girls and women.

Dr Sima Samar has been fighting for equality and justice for most of her life. Born into a polygamous family, she learned early that girls had inferior status, and she had to agree to an arranged marriage if she wanted to go to university. By the time she was in medical school, she had a son, Ali, and had become a revolutionary. After her husband was disappeared by the pro-Russian regime, she escaped. With her son and medical degree, she took off into the rural areas – by horseback, by donkey, even on foot – to treat people who had never had medical help before.

Samar's wide-ranging experiences both in her home country and on the world stage have given her inside access to the dishonesty, the collusion, the corruption, the self-serving leaders and the hijacking of religion. With stories that are at times poignant, at times terrifying, inspiring as well as disheartening, Samar provides an unparalleled view of Afghanistan's past and its present.

Sima Samar served in the Interim Administration of Afghanistan and established the first-ever Ministry of Women's Affairs

From 2002 to 2019 Samar chaired the Afghanistan Independent Human Rights Commission, a commitment that has put her own life at great risk

Sally Armstrong has written four bestselling books and was the first journalist to bring the story of the women of Afghanistan to the world

Grounded

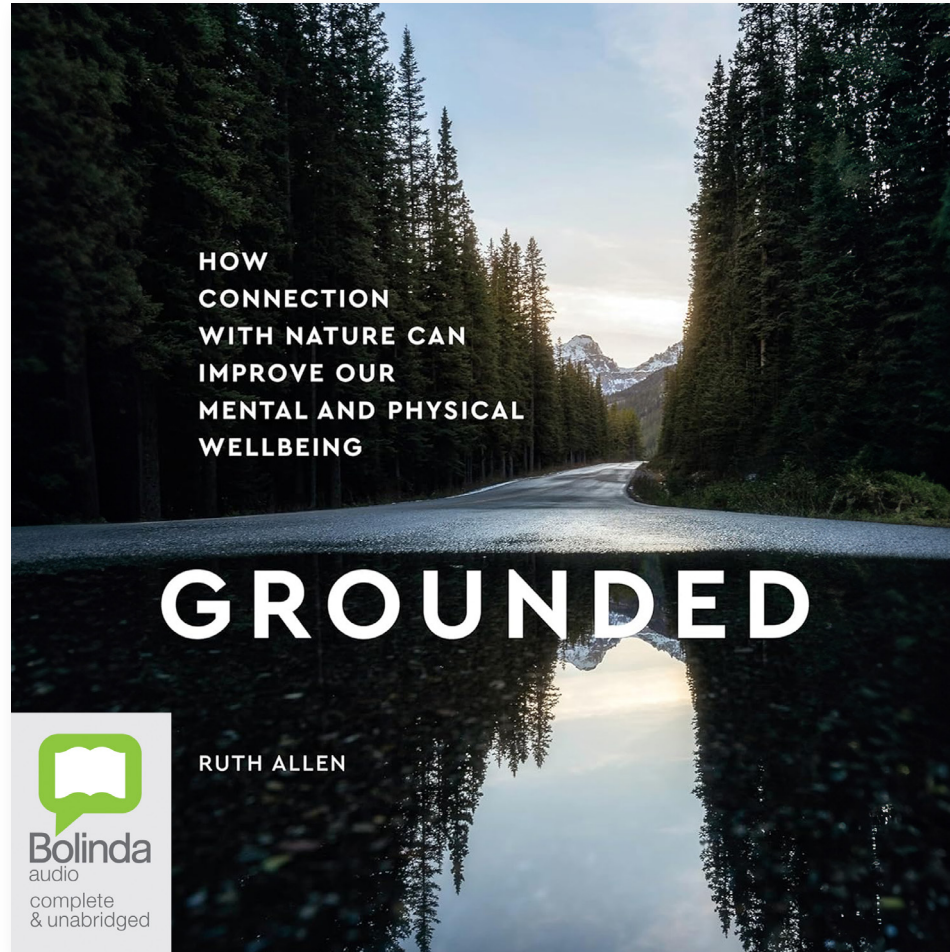

How Connection with Nature Can Improve Our Mental and Physical Wellbeing

Ruth Allen

Read by Anna Koval

Adult New Release

Lifestyle - Wellbeing | June 2024

Grounded explores the concept of rewilding as an intentional way of living in the modern age that is both disconnected from nature and hyperconnected to technology.

How do we understand nature? Benevolent and supportive? Wild and threatening? Reassuring or unpredictable? We all have a different experience of, and relationship with, nature. This audiobook includes immersive sound design to further ground the listener in nature and complement the lessons explored in the narration.

Reflecting on nature's unknowable and mysterious qualities, Grounded explores how we can therapeutically benefit from a deeper connection with nature, finding within it balance, stillness, solitude, resilience, contentment, activity, fearlessness – and our own wild voice.

Within this audiobook, you will discover:

- Mindfulness, breathing and stillness activities
- Movement exercises to connect with the physical world
- Work-life rebalancing
- Nature study and eco-therapies

Ruth Allen is a psychotherapist, trainer and writer based in the Peak District (UK) specialising in ecopsychotherapeutic/outdoor practice

Allen's work has been featured in Stylist Magazine, The Telegraph as well as BBC Radio 4 Ramblings with Clare Balding

'A story that offers a pathway back to a slower, better more conscious lifestyle that is something everyone can do and achieve by simply re-learning how to re-connect with nature.' – Blue Wolf Reviews

The Japanese Art of Living Seasonally

An Invitation to Celebrate Every Day

Natalie Leon

Read by Alix Dunmore

Adult New Release

Lifestyle – Wellbeing | June 2024

Written by Japanologist Natalie Leon, this beautiful guide unlocks the secrets of Japan's seasonal culture to help you relish the seasons wherever you are.

Since the Heian period, nature has permeated every aspect of Japanese culture in myriad ways; the Japanese literally eat, sleep and wear the seasons, from kimono motifs to seasonal sweets and annual festivals dedicated to the moon's beauty or the blooming of flowers. This celebration of nature leads to a deep awareness of the seasons, called kisetsukan.

In this audiobook, Japanologist and seasonality expert Natalie Leon explains the hidden depths of kisetsukan and shares how seasonal living can be incorporated into our own lives. Through 12 key concepts, such as shun, focusing on eating seasonally, Kasane, the language of colour, and mottainai, zero-waste living, this treasure trove of folktales, recipes and activities is an invitation to mark and appreciate each passing season.

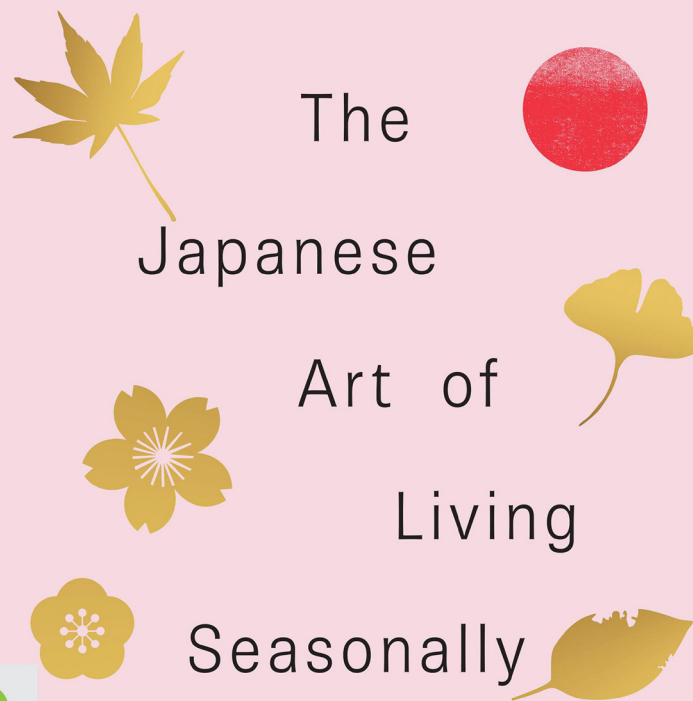

Increase your personal harmony, creativity and happiness by savouring the seasons, no matter where you are.

Natalie Leon, secretly known to her clients as The Wellness Whisperer, helps people heal their relationship with body image and food through mindful movement, intuitive nutrition and a healthy mindset

Leon is the owner of Loving Me LLC, author of Loving Me and creator of Loving Me Fitness and Loving Me Retreats

The #1 bestselling author Josephine Cox tells a ten-year-old tragedy that casts a dangerous shadow on the present in this compulsive, heart-rending and compelling saga of love, betrayal and belonging.

Ten years ago, Louise Hunter's life was torn apart by tragedy. Her husband, Ben, killed himself; her brother-in-law, Jacob, was murdered; and her sister, Susan, abandoned her newborn daughter, revealing the baby is Ben's child. Louise remains haunted by guilt over the one night she spent with Ben's friend Eric and refuses to return Eric's love. But after adopting Jinnie, she finds new happiness – until Susan decides she wants Jinnie back.

Meanwhile, Adam and Hannah, whose mother was killed with Jacob, are on the run. What Adam witnessed on that dreadful night has put them all in danger, but their beloved grandmother knows that one day they must return to the place where it all began ...

Josephine Cox was an English bestselling author of more than 60 titles over a career which spanned three decades

Cox sold over 20 million copies of her family sagas, which combined romance and tragedy to dramatic, bestselling effect

Her books were frequently bestsellers, and the UK Public Lending Rights figures often listed her in the top three borrowed authors

'If you are looking for a story with warmth, humanity and more than a touch of grit, you need look no further ... warm and compelling family saga which is as welcome as a roaring fire on a freezing winter's day ... never a moment when you are not put in touch with the passions of life.' – The Northern Echo

'Josephine Cox brings so much freshness to the plot, and the characters ... A Cookson by any other name.' – Birmingham Post (on A Little Badness)

The Secret Keepers

Tilly Bagshawe

Read by Sarah Lambie

Sweeping from the French Riviera to the wind-blown Cornish cliffs, this is a spellbinding novel about the fates and fortunes of the Challant family – and the devastating secrets that echo through the years.

The beautiful bastide at Beaulieu-sur-Mer has always been an idyllic retreat for the Challant family, a place of glorious memories and sun-drenched summers. But the summer of 1928 changes everything.

One humid, stormy night, a young local boy suffers a fatal accident in the bastide's grounds – and the suspicious circumstances around his death sets off a chain of whispers in the town on the Riviera.

For the Challant children, they have no choice but to move on and leave those terrible events in the past.

But through the years of loves and losses, marriages and betrayals, the Challants' lives will always be tainted by that night. And it's only by unlocking devastating family secrets that they'll finally be set free ...

Tilly Bagshawe is the internationally bestselling author of nine previous novels

As a journalist, Tilly contributed regularly to the Sunday Times, Daily Mail and Evening Standard before following in the footsteps of her sister Louise and turning her hand to novels

'Fabulous escapism, full of secrets & scandalous behaviour. Big and sweeping ... A pacy riot of a saga.' – Tracy Rees, author of Amy Snow (on The Secrets of Sainte Madeleine)

'You're always guaranteed corking characters and a fast-paced read with a Bagshawe story, and this doesn't disappoint' – Heat (on Friends and Rivals)

A Mother's Sorrow

Margaret Dickinson

Narrator to Come

A heart-rending family saga set around WWI from Sunday Times bestselling author and Queen of the Saga, Margaret Dickinson.

Three young women. Two families united. A bond that can't be broken ...

Sheffield, 1892. Patrick Halliday rules his family with a rod of iron. He's hard on both his wife and his elder daughter, Flora, but he spoils his youngest, Mary Ellen, because she reminds him of his beloved mother.

When Mary Ellen, aged 17, finds that she is pregnant, Patrick throws her out of the family home and Flora goes with her. After wandering the Derbyshire countryside for miles, they find shelter on a farm, working for their keep.

When Flora must return to her job as a buffer girl in Sheffield's cutlery trade, she is reunited with her friend, Evelyn Bonsor. As both young women find love and fall pregnant, the Halliday and Bonsor families are united, despite the many trials that cross their paths.

Then comes the Great War. Through hardship and tragedy, these two families must stick together to weather the storm ...

Margaret Dickinson is the author of Plough the Furrow, Sow the Seed and Reap the Harvest, which make up her Lincolnshire Fleethaven Trilogy

Dickinson is also the author of Fairfield Hall, Jenny's War and The Clippie Girls

Rent To Be

Sonia Hartl

Read by Stephanie Cannon

In this bright, laugh-out-loud rom-com, the grind of the millennial struggle is a lot more fun when you add falling in love to the mix, perfect for fans of Tessa Bailey and Beth O’Leary.

Isla Jane is having a very bad day. She’s working a job she hates, her car has broken down and she’s come home to find her flatmates have evicted her. Standing outside, her possessions in boxes, she wonders what happened to all those dreams she once had. Because right now, she’s living a nightmare.

Admitting to her parents how much has gone wrong, and moving back home, feels like the ultimate defeat. So Isla decides to secretly crash at her brother’s empty flat while he’s out of town. Only it isn’t empty. Her brother’s best friend, Cade Greenley, is staying there while his own place is under renovation.

Isla begs Cade not to say anything, she’ll fix everything before her brother comes home, and Cade grudgingly agrees. But only if Isla helps him out in return. Cade needs to get some meddling colleagues off his back and, in exchange for keeping her secret, he asks her to pose as his girlfriend at a work event.

What starts as a simple pact between almost-friends soon gets more complicated, as Isla and Cade’s pretend relationship has sparks flying between them.

Sonia Hartl is the author of YA and adult romance. Her books have been featured in PopSugar, BuzzFeed, Vulture, Book Riot and Life Savvy, among other publications

Hartl’s works include the Zodiac Cove series and the smart, sexy and witty romantic comedy, Heartbreak for Hire

‘[A] funny, steamy and heartfelt romance ...’ – Library Journal

‘In Rent to Be, Sonia Hartl shows why “brother’s best friend” is a top trope! Isla is a loveable mess, Cade is so hot and stealthily kind, and the tension and banter between the two was electric.’ – Alicia Thompson, author of Love in the Time of Serial Killers

Lia Louis

Read by Ashley Tucker

A woman accidentally reveals all her secrets in this witty and charming story from the author of Eight Perfect Hours.

Two years ago, 30-year-old receptionist Millie Chandler had her heart spectacularly broken in public. Ever since, she has been a closed book, vowing to keep everything to herself – her feelings, her truths, even her dreams – in an effort to protect herself from getting hurt again.

But Millie does write emails – sarcastic replies to her rude boss, hard truths to her friends, and of course, that 1000-word love declaration to her ex who is now engaged to someone else. The emails live safely in her drafts, but after a server outage at work, Millie wakes up to discover that all her emails have been sent. Every. Single. One.

As every truth, lie and secret she's worked so hard to keep only to herself are catapulted out into the open, Millie must fix the chaos her words have caused, and face everything she's ever swept under the carpet.

Better Left Unsent is an unforgettable and moving story, perfect for fans of Rebecca Serle and Emily Henry

Lia Louis was the 2015 winner of Elle magazine's annual writing competition and has been a contributor for Bloomsbury's Writers and Artists blog for aspiring writers

Louis is the author of Somewhere Close to Happy, Dear Emmie Blue and Eight Perfect Hours – her titles are enjoyed around the world and have been translated into over ten languages

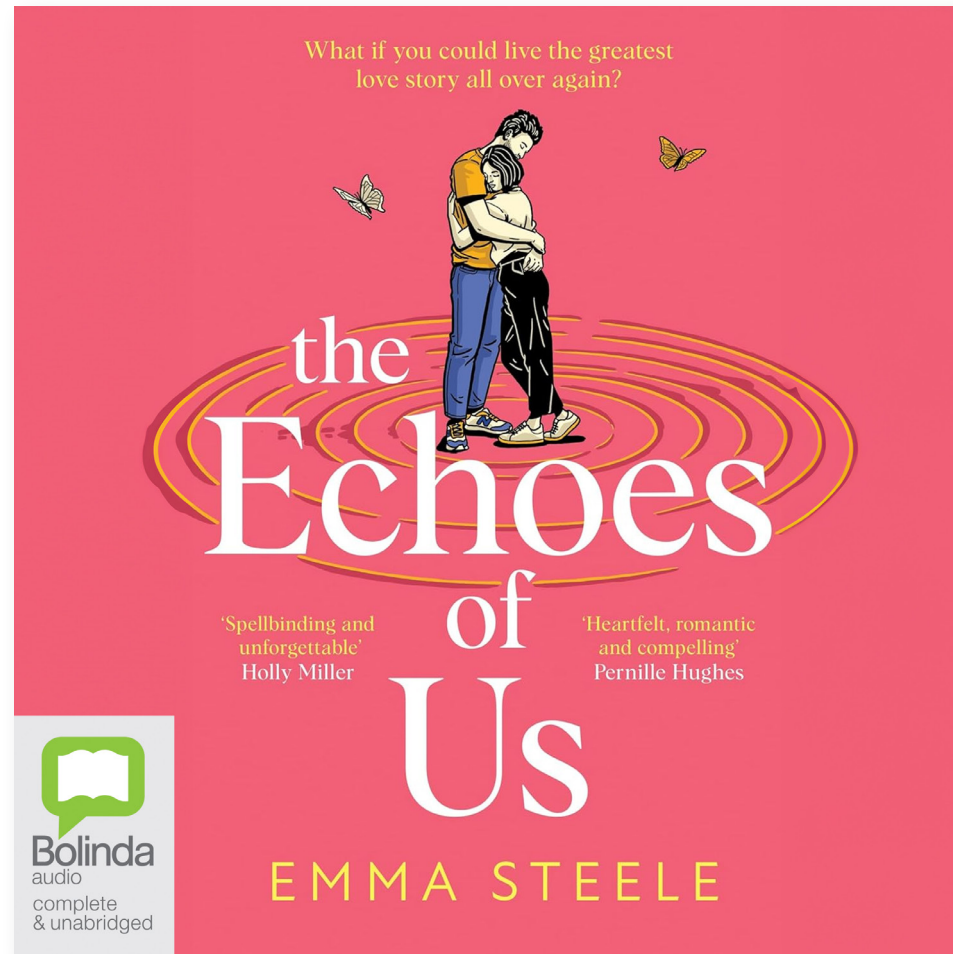

'No one writes a romcom like Lia Louis. Better Left Unsent is beyond wonderful; so funny, so sweet, very, very romantic, and somehow managed to make me feel better about every email I've ever sent accidentally (I've sent a lot of accidental emails).' – Lindsey Kelk, internationally bestselling author of I Heart New York and On a Night Like This

'I am such a huge Lia Louis fan. Better Left Unsent is an absolutely gorgeous, laugh-out-loud, heartwarming tale of a life fully lived, with one of the smartest rom-com concepts I've ever come across.' – Beth O'Leary, internationally bestselling author of The Wake-Up Call

Last Chance In Paris

Lynda Marron

Read by Emer Heatley

Following a tragedy, an Irish couple takes a make-or-break trip to Paris, in a funny, moving and, above all, life-affirming story from author Lynda Marron.

When her husband suggests a romantic break, Claire feels obliged to say yes but immediately regrets it. After the tragedy they've been through, how can one weekend in Paris save their marriage?

Claire and Ronan aren't the only people on a make-or-break visit to the City of Love. There is a big-shot movie producer from Hollywood, full of regret for a life ill-lived; a student from Boston, torn between love and duty; a Ukrainian refugee struggling to protect her little sister; and an old woman from Dijon, hoping to be braver than she has ever had to be before.

When their lives briefly intertwine, something extraordinary happens ...

Lynda Marron graduated from University College Cork in the mid-'90s with two degrees in microbiology, neither of which brought her any closer to her dream of writing a novel

Marron opted for the longer route, the Life Experience Creative Writing Course, which included teaching English to Italian teenagers, filing letters in a GP's surgery and writing listicles for an online bookseller

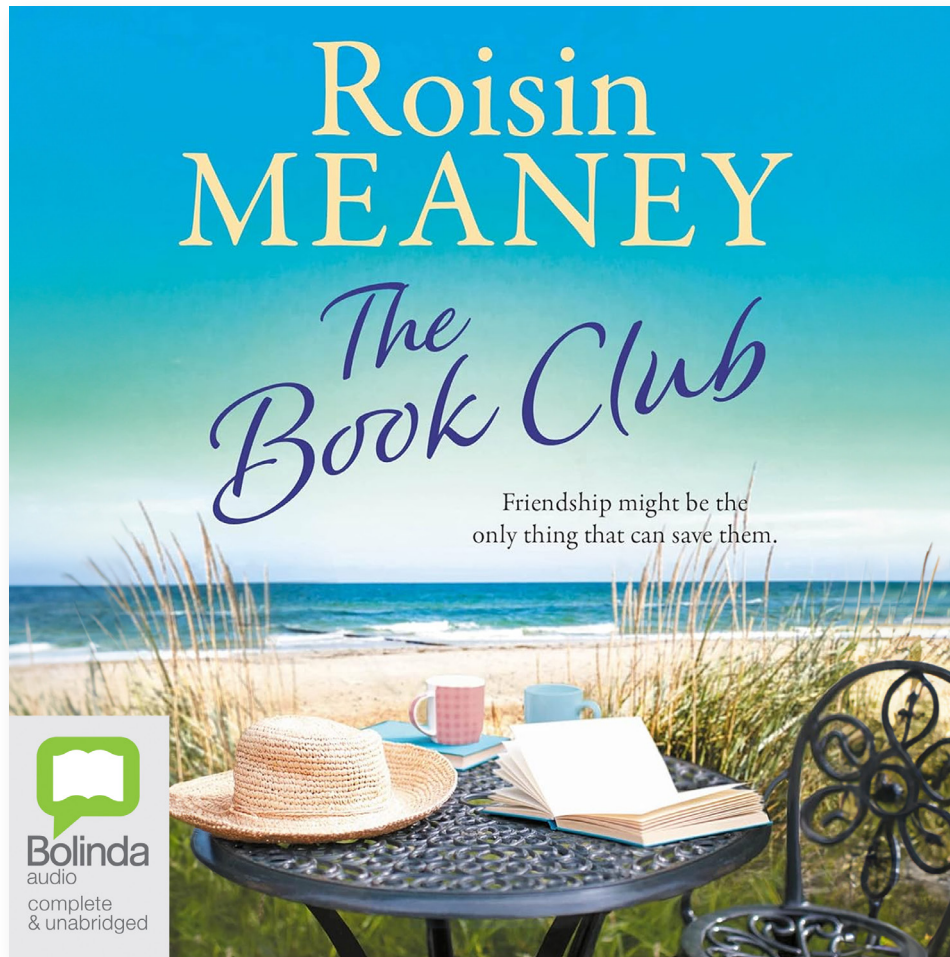

'A fresh new voice in Irish fiction, a story peopled with original and well-drawn characters and imbued with a delightful Parisienne flavour.' – Roisin Meaney, author of Life Before Us

'A story of love, loss and redemption in one of the world's most iconic cities.' – Sheila O'Flanagan, bestselling author of What Happened That Night

The Book Club

Roisin Meaney

Read by Aoife McMahon

A heartwarming story about the power of friendship from beloved bestselling Irish author, Roisin Meaney.

A tragic accident leaves the tight-knit book club in the small seaside town of Fairweather reeling. Then stranger Tom McLysaght arrives in the community, and the members of the club find their lives changing in ways they never could have imagined.

None of them realise that Tom is hiding a secret. On the surface, his move to Fairweather was to escape his highflying life in London and to put some much-needed distance between him and his ex-fiancée – but deep-down Tom knows that there are some things he cannot run from.

As the months pass with book club gatherings, secrets are shared and hurts begin to heal. New friendships might be the last thing on their minds but the members of the book club are about to discover that opening themselves up to other people might be the only thing that will help them all to live, and to love, again.

Roisin Meaney is the number one bestselling author who is now based in Limerick, Ireland

Meaney is the author of 15 novels including three standalone novels set in the fictional island off the west coast of Ireland: One Summer, After the Wedding and I'll Be Home for Christmas

Meaney's other bestsellers include The Last Week of May, The People Next Door, Half Seven on a Thursday, Love in the Making, The Things We Do For Love, Something in Common, Two Fridays in April and The Reunion

'An emotional and heart-warming story about community spirit, grief, and hope, The Book Club by Roisin Meaney is everything you could wish for in a novel and then some.' – Books of All Kinds

Twisted

Lynda La Plante

Read by Emma Gregory

Where is Amy? Is she alive or dead? Lies and betrayal mount as the hunt for a missing girl becomes a search for a body, in this dark thriller from bestselling author Lynda La Plante.

Marcus and Lena Fulford are the envy of their friends. Wealthy, attractive and successful, the couple, with their strikingly beautiful teenage daughter Amy, seem settled and content. But appearances mask a strained relationship almost at breaking point. Marcus's latest business venture has failed, draining Lena, the major breadwinner, dry. Putting Amy into weekly boarding school and striving to get her own career back on its feet, Lena remains alone in the luxurious family house as her marriage heads towards as amicable a divorce as she and Marcus can muster, and joint custody of their only child.

So when Amy arranges a sleepover with a school friend one weekend, neither parent sees the need to be in touch with her. It is only when Amy is reported missing from school and her friend's mother reveals that, instead of staying with them, Amy was visiting her father – a fact vehemently denied by Marcus – that Lena contacts the police. DI Victor Reid, in charge of the case, fears the worst – abduction or murder.

Lynda La Plante is the author of numerous bestselling titles, including The Legacy, Cold Shoulder and Sleeping Cruelty

In 2008, La Plante was awarded a CBE in the Queen's Birthday Honours List for services to Literature, Drama and Charity

'Packed with high-tension, fast-paced action, an unforgettable cast of characters, plenty of twists and turns, and La Plante's dark and satirical brand of northern humour, this is crime fiction and excitingly visual storytelling at its best.' – Lancashire Post (on Widow's Revenge)

The House of Susan Lulham

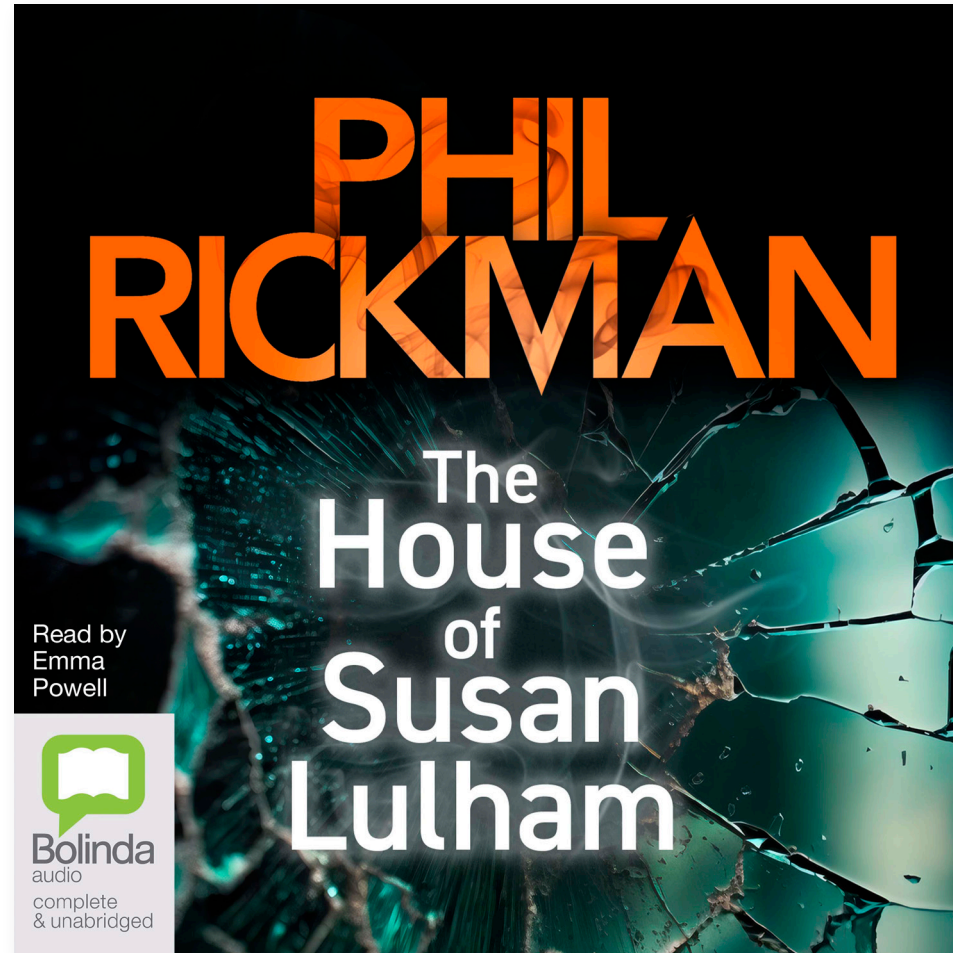

Merrily Watkins #13

Phil Rickman

Read by Emma Powell

Adult New Release

Crime & Thriller | June 2024

The diocesan exorcist for Hereford must reveal the haunting presence of Susan Lulham in this 13th instalment of the Merrily Watkins Mysteries.

A new husband and a new house. Just as well, because Zoe doesn't like old.

Back in the 1960s, this house was built to look ultra-modern, with lots of glass and sharp angles. And it was going cheap, perhaps because of the self-inflicted death of a previous owner – notoriously bloody and prolonged.

But Zoe didn't know that. And if her husband Jonathan knew, he kept very quiet.

How is Merrily Watkins, diocesan exorcist for Hereford, to know what's behind Zoe's claim that the late Susan Lulham is still in residence?

Sceptical neighbours seem unlikely to help, and fresh blood will decorate the pristine white walls of the New House before its secret history begins, at last, to leak out.

Phil Rickman is also the author of the John Dee series and several novels of the paranormal, including two for children under the name Thom Madley

Rickman has worked as a BBC radio and TV reporter, and he writes and presents the book program Phil the Shelf on BBC Radio Wales

'First rate crime with demons that go bump in the night.' – Daily Mail

An entire world of hilariously horrible and delightfully dreadful children in one incredible collection of cautionary tales from the phenomenal number one bestselling author David Walliams.

The World's Worst Children 1: Are you ready to meet the World's Worst Children? Five beastly boys and five gruesome girls! Like Sofia Sofa – a TV super-fan so stuck to the sofa that she's turning into one! Or Dribbling Drew – a boy whose drool gets him into trouble on a school trip! And not forgetting Blubbering Bertha – a girl who bawls and tells terrible tales!

The World's Worst Children 2: Ready for more? The beastly boys and gruesome girls in this audiobook are even ruder, even more disgusting and WORSE than you could ever imagine! The gruesome characters will make you snort with laughter and thank your lucky stars that you don't know anyone like Gruesome Griselda or Fussy Frankie in real life. It also features a special appearance from fan-favourite Raj!

The World's Worst Children 3: Just when you thought it was safe to go back to your bookshelf, 10 more horrendously hilarious stories about the absolute worst children ever! From ten-year old Hank and his endless pranks on his poor, long-suffering family, to Tandy and her titanic tantrums.

David Walliams is a literary phenomenon whose books have sold more than 53 million copies worldwide and have been translated into 55 languages

Walliams's The World's Worst Pets was the bestselling children's book of 2022. He was most recently the Children's number one bestseller with Robodog

Walliams' other titles, Ratburger, Demon Dentist and Awful Auntie, have all won the National Book Awards Children's Book of the Year

'You'll find ten terrible kids – five beastly boys and five ghastly girls – whose hilariously horrible tales will make you cry with laughter... you'll be able to dive in to each delightfully dreadful tale with ease!' – National Geographic Kids

A Mind Full of Murder

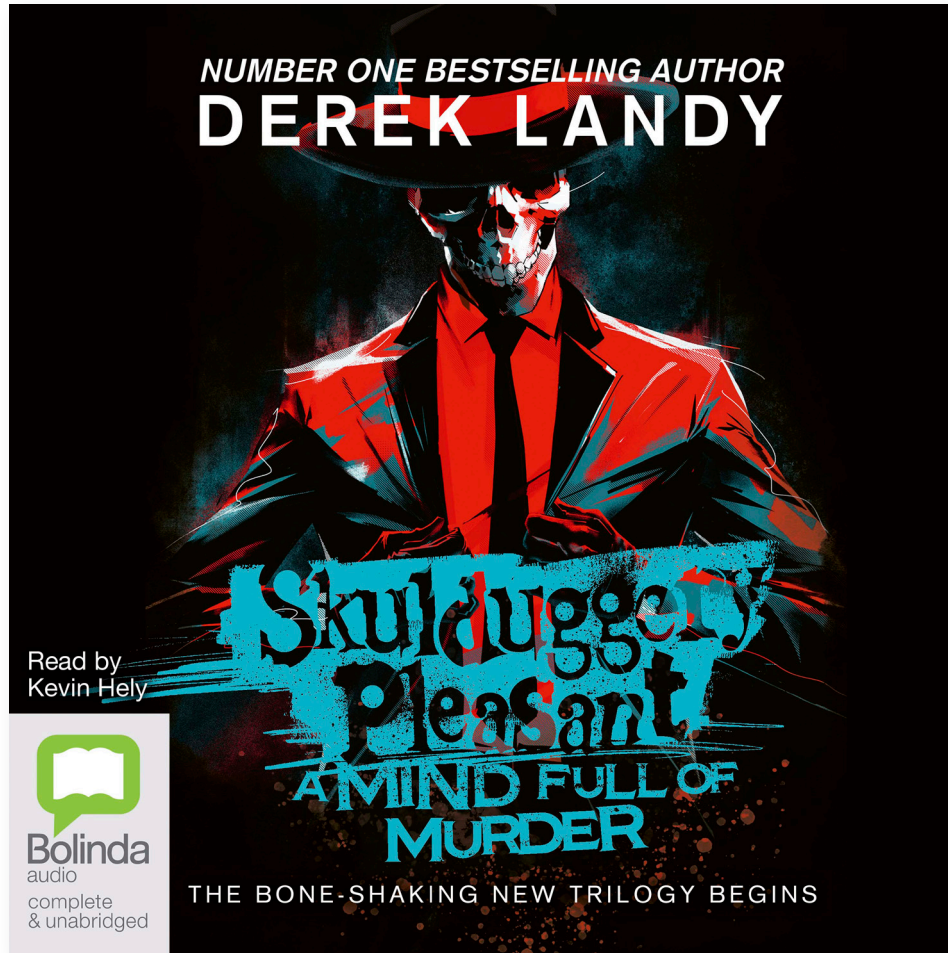

Skulduggery Pleasant #16

Derek Landy

Read by Kevin Hely

Children's New Release

Children's Fiction | June 2024

A bone-shaking new trilogy begins – the latest adventure in the bestselling Skulduggery Pleasant series.

SIX YEARS AGO, THE UNIVERSE ENDED.

When it restarted, blinking back into existence, it brought with it a darkness that remains hidden from the mortal population.

A week ago – fuelled by unimaginable hatred and unstoppable rage – a masked sorcerer killed one of those mortals. Then he killed another. And another.

With their time running out, Skulduggery Pleasant and Valkyrie Cain must work to solve the puzzles the killer leaves behind before more innocents die, embarking on a journey that will force them to deal with the apocalypse they failed to prevent the first time around.

AND MURDER. LOTS AND LOTS OF MURDER.

Before writing his children's story about a sharply-dressed skeleton detective, Derek Landy wrote the screenplays for two films, the IFTA award-winning Dead Bodies and the IFTA-nominated Boy Eats Girl starring Samantha Mumba

Landy's first title, Skulduggery Pleasant, won the Red House Children's Book Award, and his second, Playing With Fire, won an Irish Book Award for Children's Book of the Year

'Skulduggery Pleasant serves up a thoroughly satisfying blend of humour, magic and adventure.' – Rick Riordan, author of the Percy Jackson series (on Skulduggery Pleasant series)

'A fast evolving plot and a great mix of scariness and humour.' – Sunday Express (on the Skulduggery Pleasant series)

My Life and Other Weaponised Muffins

Tom Weekly #5

Tristan Bancks

Read by Stig Wemyss

Children's New Release

Children's Fiction | June 2024

Another wild ride with Tom Weekly as he faces off against killer muffins and more, from the award-winning author Tristan Bancks.

I'm Tom Weekly and eating is my favourite sport.

My mum's raspberry muffins are weapons of minor destruction. I've been trapped inside a runaway car on a trip to buy ice cream. I accidentally invented meatball bungee. And my recipe for chocolate mousse has a secret ingredient that you don't even want to know.

What would you rather do?

1. Ride a shark or a rhino?
2. Kiss a dog or a cat?
3. Needle in the eye or bum set on fire?

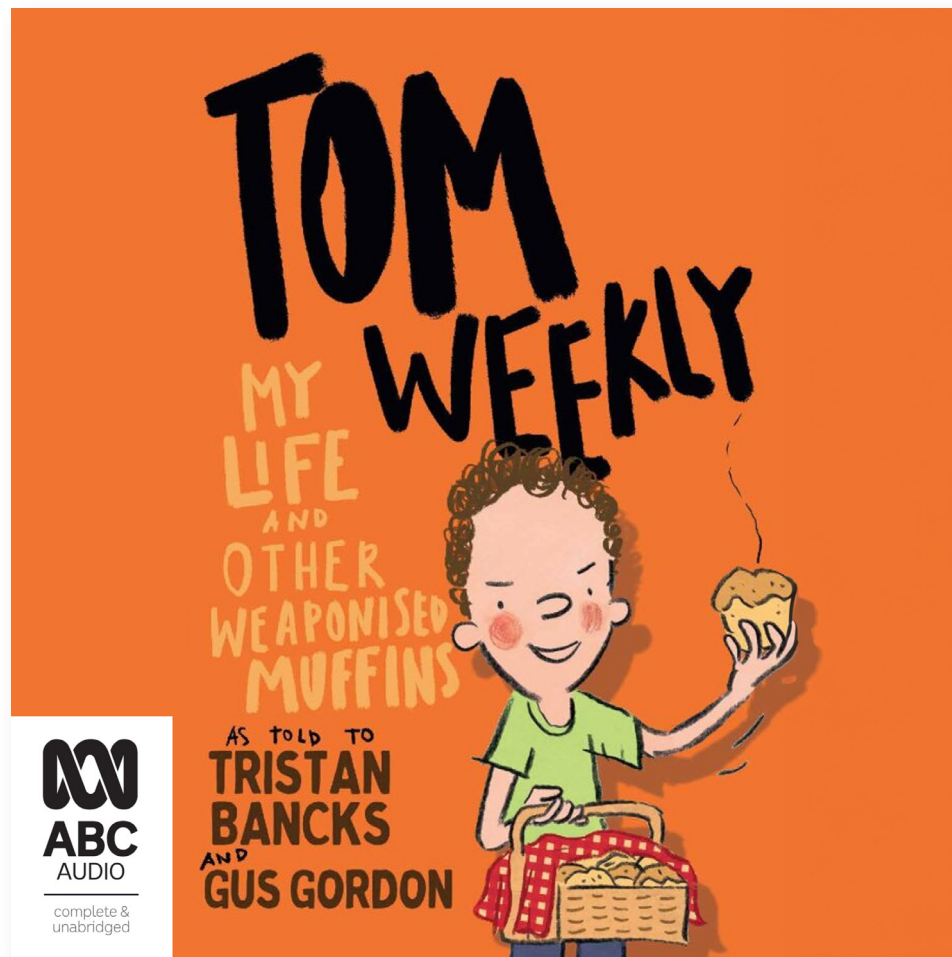

Produced with sound design and music for an immersive listening experience

Tristan Bancks is the author of Two Wolves, The Fall, Detention, Cop & Robber and Ginger Meggs, and is an author-advocate for literacy non-profit Room to Read

Bancks's titles have won and been shortlisted for many awards, including a Children's Book Council of Australia Honour Book, the Prime Minister's Literary Awards and the YABBA children's choice book awards

'Fans of Griffiths, Gleitzman and Jennings will be thrilled to have this in their collection. Author Bancks doesn't skip a beat as he writes from his character Tom's perspective.'
– Kids Book Review (on My Life and Other Stuff I Made Up)

'What an exhilarating ride it is to follow the misadventures of Tom Weekly ... Delightful and funny. Bancks has beautifully captured the essence of boyhood. Tom is a typical 21st-century schoolboy, following in the fine tradition of Ginger Meggs ... Best of all, it made me laugh.'
– Good Reading Magazine (on My Life and Other Exploding Chickens)

Mim and the Vicious Vendetta

Travelling Bookshop #5

Katrina Nannestad

Read by Emmanuelle Mattana

Children's New Release

Children's Fiction | June 2024

The lively new adventure from award-winning author Katrina Nannestad.

The right book might just change your life ...

Mim Cohen roams the world in a travelling bookshop, with her dad and brother and a horse called Flossy. Flossy leads them where she will, to the place where they're needed most ... the place where the perfect book will find its way home.

Now Mim has arrived in wonderful Venice, city of canals, palaces, bridges, boats and ... quarrels. Gondolier battles, cat nappings and laundry theft are just the beginning.

The Magnifico family and the Forte family are at war. Mim knows they're here to help the feuding families. To show them a better way to behave. To bring an end to the vicious vendetta.

If only Mim could find each of them the right book. If only they'd all stop reading the wrong books.

Katrina Nannestad is an award-winning Australian author. Her books include the CBCA-shortlisted We Are Wolves, The Travelling Bookshop series, the historical novel Rabbit, Soldier, Angel, Thief and many others

Nannestad is also the author of The Girl Who Brought Mischief, The Girl, the Dog and the Writer series, the Olive of Groves series, the Red Dirt Diaries series, the Lottie Perkins series and Bungalow Creek

Nannestad's Mim and the Baffling Bully was the CBCA Notable Book 2022, and was shortlisted for the 2022 Speech Pathology Australia Book of the Year Awards and for the 2023 R.E.A.L./ KOALA Awards for Younger Readers

'This series is full of whimsy and humour. It is warm and huge-hearted with carefully drawn story threads that all come together perfectly at the end.' – Reading Time (on the Travelling Bookshop series)

'This enchanting new series sparks imagination, curiosity, and exploration ...' – Better Reading (on the Travelling Bookshop series)

The Summer Dolphin

Holly Webb

Read by Faith Hansen

A heartwarming story about family from one of Britain's most loved children's authors, Holly Webb.

When Lillie spends the summer in Wales with her family, she can't help but feel like the baby of the group. Her big sister Frankie would rather spend time with their older cousin Lana than play with her, and no one else seems to notice how lonely she is.

Then during a boat trip, Lillie spots a young dolphin swimming alongside them and for a short while all her worries melt away. Later, when Frankie and Lana are particularly mean to her, Lillie decides to set off on her own in hopes of seeing the dolphin calf again ...

Holly Webb is one of Britain's best loved children's authors. She has written over a hundred titles for children and her work has been translated into over 30 languages

Perfect for animal-loving children

'Another heart-warming and hugely satisfying adventure from one of our best animal story writers.' – LoveReading4Kids (on The Railway Kitten)

'Nobody does animal stories better than Holly Webb! ... truly adorable ...' – Lancashire Evening Post (on The Beach Puppy)

The Giggler Treatment

Roddy Doyle

Read by Naill Gaffney

A gloriously silly comedy for children from Booker prize winner and bestselling Irish author, Roddy Doyle.

If adults are mean to children, they get the Giggler Treatment. It's smelly. It's squishy. And it sticks to your shoe ...

Mr Mack's dog, Rover, sells his own poo to 'the Gigglers,' a group of children who take revenge on any adult who treats children unfairly... by making the unsuspecting adults step in poo!

But sometimes, just sometimes, the Gigglers make a mistake... When the gigglers set out to exact punishment on Mr Mack, Rover knows he doesn't deserve it. Can Robbie, Kayla, Jimmy and Rover the dog come to Mr Mack's rescue before the poo hits the shoe?

Roddy Doyle is the author of Rover Saves Christmas, The Meanwhile Adventures and A Greyhound of a Girl, which was shortlisted for the Carnegie Medal in 2013

Doyle won the Booker Prize in 1993 for Paddy Clarke Ha Ha Ha

'Riotously funny.' – The Times

'Brilliant.' – Irish Independent

Peregrine Quinn and the Cosmic Realm

Ash Bond

Read by Adjoa Andoh

Discover the portal to an incredible new world in this epic middle-grade adventure. Perfect for fans of Skandar, Percy Jackson and Artemis Fowl.

Peregrine Quinn has always loved hearing her godfather Daedalus Bloom's stories about his life as an immortal, but that's all they were – stories. That is, until the portals that connect the Terran Realm with the Cosmic Realm mysteriously shut down and Daedalus, the only one who can fix them, is kidnapped.

Peregrine is then swept into a nail-biting adventure, racing through the streets of Oxford, down the riverways of London and into the Under-Underground. She soon realises that not only are the creatures from her godfather's stories real, but they're shooting at her with laser blasters.

Fortunately she has help from dryad librarian Rowan Strong and Olympus Inc. liaison (and faun) Callimachus Thorn. Together they must fix the portals and rescue Daedalus before an ancient evil rises and chaos takes over. Time is running out and the fate of all the realms is now in Peregrine's hands ...

Ash Bond completed a Masters in Writing for Young People at Bath Spa University and is now studying for her PhD, focussing on mythological retellings through a feminist lens, at the University of Bristol

Bond writes magical stories that have classical myth sprinkled through them like fairy dust

'Full of fast-paced action, endless fun and fearless imagination.' – A.F. Steadman, author of Skandar and the Unicorn Thief

'Mythology with a modern makeover – Peregrine Quinn's battle to save the cosmic realm is an epic adventure!' – Maz Evans, bestselling author of the Who Let the Gods Out series

The Extraordinary Voyage of Katy Willacott

Sharon Gosling

Read by Jo Vicente

A thrilling historical adventure from the author of The House of Hidden Wonders, perfect for fans of Katherine Woodfine, Lucy Worsley, Jennifer Bell and Robin Stevens.

Living among the flowers and ferns of Kew Gardens, Katy has always dreamed of more – of the sky and the stars and the sea. Unfortunately for Katy, her father doesn't understand. He says young girls should be content to stay at home, not go off gallivanting around the world.

So when news reaches London of a meteorite falling in the faraway land of Brazil and an expedition being put together to find it, Katy knows it's her chance to follow her dreams and prove her father wrong. And winning a place on the trip is just the start of her extraordinary voyage on the trail of a fallen star ...

Sharon Gosling is the award-winning author of middle grade novels The Diamond Thief and The Golden Butterfly

Gosling is also the author of Young Adult horror Fir, which was shortlisted for the Lancashire Book of the Year 2017
